(4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the allotment is in connection with an arrangement providing for it to be on terms that the whole or part of the consideration for the shares allotted is to be provided by the transfer to the company or the cancellation of all or some of the shares or of all or some of the shares of a particular class in another company, with or without the issue to the company applying under section 18 of shares or of shares of any particular class in that other company.

(5) A share is not to be disregarded under subsection (4), if the aggregate in nominal value of that share and other shares proposed to be so disregarded is more than one-tenth of the nominal value of the company's allotted share capital; but for that purpose the allotted share capital is treated as not including any shares disregarded under subsection (4).

“Act” means the Companies Act;
“seal” means the common seal of the company;
“secretary” means any person appointed to perform the duties of the secretary of the company.

Expressions referring to writing shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as including references to printing, lithography, photography and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these Regulations shall bear the same meaning as in the Act or any statutory modification of the Act in force at the date at which these Regulations become binding on the company.

Share capital and variation of rights

2. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares, any share in the company may be issued with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the company may from time to time by ordinary resolution determine.
3. Subject to section 66 of the Act, any preference shares may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the company are liable, to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the company before the issue of the shares may by special resolution determine.

4. (1) Where at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class, unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, may, whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of seventy-five percent of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class.

(2) The provisions of these Regulations relating to general meetings shall apply to every separate general meeting referred to in subregulation (1), but the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.

5. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be taken to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu with those shares.

6. (1) The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions conferred by section 60 of the Act, except that the rate percent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by that section and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of ten percent of the price at which the shares in respect of which the commission is paid are issued or an amount equal to ten percent of such price, as the case may be.

(2) The commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other.

(3) The company may, on any issue of shares, pay such brokerage as may be lawful.

7. Except as required by law, any person shall not be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by or compelled, in any way, to recognise even when having notice of it any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of a share or except only as by these Regulations or by law otherwise provided any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety of the share in the registered holder.

8. (2) Every certificate shall be under the seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid-up on the shares.

(3) In respect of a share held jointly by several persons the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders is sufficient delivery to all the holders.

9. Where a share certificate is defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of a fee of ..... shillings or such lesser sum and on such terms, if any, as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the company of investigating evidence as the directors think fit.

10. The company shall not give, whether directly or indirectly, and whether by means of a loan, guarantee, the provision of security or otherwise, financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase or subscription made or to be made by any person of or for any shares in the company or in its holding company nor shall the company make a loan for any purpose on the security of its shares or those of its holding company, but nothing in this regulation shall prohibit transactions mentioned in section 61(2) of the Act.

Lien

immediately payable or not called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share.

(2) The company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares other than fully paid shares standing registered in the name of a single person for all money immediately payable by him or her or his or her estate to the company.

Where a person becomes entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member, that person may, upon such evidence being produced as may, from time to time, properly be required by the directors and subject to these regulations, elect either to be registered himself or herself as holder of the share or to have some person nominated by him or her registered as the transferee of the shares, but the directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that member before his or her death or bankruptcy.

31. (1) Where the person entitled under regulation 30 elects to be registered himself or herself, he or she shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him or her stating that he or she so elects.

101. The directors may elect a chairperson of their meetings and determine the period for which he or she is to hold office; but if no chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the chairperson is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present may choose one of their number to be a chairperson of the meeting.

All acts done by a meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors or by a person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of that director or person acting as director, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a director.

106. A resolution in writing, signed by all the directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the directors, is valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors duly convened and held.

108. A managing director shall receive such remuneration whether by way of salary, commission or participation in profits, or partly in one way and partly in another as the directors may determine.

109. The directors may entrust to and confer upon a managing director any of the powers exercisable by them upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they may think fit, and either collaterally with or to the exclusion of their own powers and may revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of those powers.

(2) The directors shall give effect to the resolution under subregulation (1).

(3) Where difficulty arises in regard to that distribution, the directors may settle it as they think expedient, and in particular may issue fractional certificates and fix the value for distribution of those specific assets or any part of it and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any members upon the basis of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties, and may vest any of those specific assets in trustees as the directors may consider expedient.

(2) The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or taken to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the date and the hour of meeting and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business and shall be given, in the manner mentioned in this article or in any other manner, if any, prescribed by the company at a general meeting, to such persons as are, under the articles of the company, entitled to receive such notices from the company.

(3) A meeting of the company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by a shorter notice than that specified in this article, be taken to have been duly called if it is agreed—
