- (b) the municipal division councils.

(5) The local government in a town shall be the town council.

4. City to be equivalent to district

For purposes of this Act—

- (a) a city shall be equivalent to a district, and a city council shall exercise all functions and powers conferred upon a district council within its area of jurisdiction;
- (b) a city division shall be equivalent to a municipality; and
- (c) a municipal division and a town shall be equivalent to a subcounty.

5. Municipality and town to be lower local governments

Subject to Article 197 of the Constitution and section 82, a municipal or a town council shall be a lower local government of the district in which it is situated.

6. Local governments to be bodies corporate

(1) Every local government shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, and may sue or be sued in its corporate name and may, subject to the provisions of the Constitution, do, enjoy or suffer anything that may be done, enjoyed or suffered by a body corporate.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), no execution, attachment or process in such nature shall be issued out of any court for enforcing payment by a local government of any money or costs against its fixed assets and statutory transfers, provided the execution or attachment may be made against any other property after six months from the date of judgment, order or decree.

7. Boundaries of local council units

(1) The boundaries of a district unit may be altered or new district units formed, in accordance with Article 179 of the Constitution.

(2) The Minister may, with the approval of Parliament, declare an urban area a city in accordance with paragraph 33 of Schedule 2 to this Act.

(3) A district council may, with the approval of Parliament, create a municipality within its area of jurisdiction in accordance with paragraph 33 of Schedule 2 to this Act.

(4) Subject to the Physical Planning Act, the Minister may, in consultation with the district with the approval of Cabinet after satisfying himself or herself that the requirements under paragraph 33 of Schedule 2 to this Act are met, declare an area to be a town.

(5) A district council, acting on a request of a lower local government may, with the approval of the Minister, declare an area to be a town board.

(6) A district may, with the approval of the Minister, within its area of jurisdiction, at the request of or in consultation with the relevant municipal council, alter the boundaries of or create a new municipal division council.

(7) A district council may, within its area of jurisdiction and with the approval of the Minister at the request of or in consultation with the relevant subcounty councils, alter the boundaries of or create a new subcounty.

(8) A subcounty or city division council may, within its area of jurisdiction with the approval of the district or city council and at the request of or in consultation with the relevant parishes or wards, and with the approval of the Minister, alter the boundaries of or create a new parish or ward.

(9) A district or city council may, within its area of jurisdiction with the approval of Parliament and in consultation with or at the request of the relevant county council or city division council, alter the boundaries of or create a new county or a city division.

(10) A municipal division or town council may, within its area of jurisdiction and at the request of or in consultation with the relevant wards and with the approval of the Minister, alter the boundaries of or create a new ward.

(11) A parish or ward council may, with the approval of a subcounty, division or town council and at the request of or in consultation with the relevant villages as the case may be and with the approval of the Minister, alter the boundaries of or create a new village.

(12) Where a new local government or administrative unit is created after the local government council elections, the elections to fill the elective positions in the newly created local government or administrative unit shall be held at the next local government council elections.

(13) Where a new local government or administrative unit is created after a general election, the local government or administrative unit shall take effect six months prior to the next general parliamentary elections and local government council elections.

(14) A new local government or administrative unit shall commence on a date appointed by the Minister by statutory instrument.

(15) Where an approval required under this section is not given, the authority withholding its approval shall, in writing, give reasons for its action.

8. Cooperation among districts

(1) Two or more district councils may, in accordance with Article 178 of the Constitution—

(a) cooperate in the areas of culture and development; and

- (b) for the purpose of the cooperation, form and support councils, trust funds or secretariats.

(2) A local government council may concur with any other local government council in appointing a joint committee for any matter in which they have a common interest.

PART III—LOCAL GOVERNMENT SETUP

9. Local government councils

(1) A council shall be the highest political authority within the area of jurisdiction of a local government and shall have legislative and executive powers to be exercised in accordance with the Constitution and this Act.

(2) A person shall not be a member of a local government council unless that person is a citizen of Uganda.

District councils

10. Composition of district councils

- (1) District councils shall consist of—
 - (a) the district chairperson, elected under Part X of this Act;
 - (b) one councillor directly elected to represent an electoral area of a district;
 - (c) two councillors, one of whom shall be a female youth, representing the youth in the district;
 - (d) two councillors with disabilities, one of whom shall be a female, representing persons with disabilities;
 - (e) a woman councillor directly elected to represent each electoral area in the district;

 - (g) two members representing workers, one of whom shall be a female, elected in accordance with the Labour Unions Act; and
 - (h) the chairperson of district women council and chairperson of subcounty women council who shall be ex officio members of the councils.

(2) A member of Parliament may attend meetings of a local council in his or her district and constituency as an ex officio member of the council.

11. Speaker and deputy speaker of district council

(1) A district council shall have a speaker and a deputy speaker elected by the council from among members of the council.

(2) The speaker and the deputy speaker shall be elected through a secret ballot.

(3) At the elections of a speaker or deputy speaker, no person shall be declared elected speaker or deputy speaker unless that person gets more than fifty percent of the votes of all members of the council cast in his or her favour.

(4) If no person gets more than fifty percent of the votes cast, the elections shall be repeated between the two persons getting the highest votes until one of them gets more than fifty percent of the votes.

(5) If during the election of a speaker or deputy speaker only one person is nominated, that person shall be declared elected speaker or deputy speaker.

(6) The speaker or deputy speaker may be removed from office by the council by a resolution supported by not less than two-thirds of the members of the council on any of the following grounds—

- (a) abuse of office;
- (b) incompetence;
-) misconduct or misbehaviour;
- (c) such physical or mental incapacity as would render the speaker
- (d) or deputy speaker incapable of performing the duties of speaker or deputy speaker; or
- (e) failure without reasonable excuse to call two consecutive meetings of the council.

(7) For purposes of removing the speaker, a notice in writing signed by at least one-third of all members of the council, shall be submitted to the chairperson stating their grounds and that they intend to pass a resolution to remove the speaker.

(8) Where a notice is submitted to the chairperson under subsection (7) no person shall withdraw his or her signature from the notice.

(9) A notice made under subsection (7) shall be submitted to the Minister or his or her representative by the clerk to council and the Minister, or his or her representative shall evaluate the notice for removal of the speaker, and if satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for doing so, shall, within thirty days after receipt of the notice, convene or cause the convening of a meeting for the removal of a speaker and the election of a new speaker.

(10) The office of speaker or deputy speaker shall fall vacant if the holder resigns the office or accepts appointment to a public office or dies.

(11) A chief magistrate shall preside at the first election of the speaker following general elections of district local councils.

(12) The speaker shall preside at the removal of a deputy speaker and the election of a new deputy speaker.

(13) The speaker shall

- (a) preside at all meetings of the council;
- (b) be charged with the overall authority for the preservation of order in the council and the enforcement of the rules of procedure of the council; and
- (c) perform functions which are similar to those of the Speaker of Parliament as may be consistent with this Act.

(14) Except for the taking of oath of the members of the council, no business shall be transacted in the council before the election of a speaker at any time that office is vacant.

(15) A speaker shall be on full time service of the district council.

(16) A speaker of a district council shall be paid emoluments and allowances in accordance with Schedule 3 to this Act, and shall not hold any office of profit or emolument likely to compromise his or her office.

(17) A deputy speaker of a district council shall be paid emoluments and allowances in accordance with Schedule 3 to this Act.

12. District chairperson

- (1) There shall be a district chairperson who shall
 - (a) ~~the~~ political head of the district; and
 - (b) elected by universal adult suffrage through a secret ballot.
- (2) A district chairperson shall be—
 - (a) a person qualified to be elected a member of Parliament; and
 - (b) a person ordinarily resident in that district.

13. Functions of chairperson

- (1) A district chairperson shall—
 - (a) preside at the meetings of the executive committee of the district;
 - (b) monitor the general administration of the district;
 - (c) monitor the implementation of council decisions;
 - (d) subject to section 82 and Article 197 of the Constitution, monitor and coordinate the activities of the municipal and town councils and of other lower local governments and administrative units in the district;
 - (e) on behalf of the council, oversee the performance of persons employed by the Government to provide services in the district and to monitor the provision of Government services or the implementation of projects in the district;
 - (f) subject to section 70(3)(g), coordinate and monitor government functions as between the district and the Government; and
 - (g) perform other functions that may be necessary for the better functioning of the district council, or which may be incidental to the functions of chairperson or imposed on the chairperson by any law.
- (2) The chairperson shall abide by, uphold and safeguard the Constitution, the district laws and other laws of Uganda and shall endeavour to promote the welfare of the citizens in the district.
- (3) Subject to the Constitution and this Act, the functions conferred on the chairperson may be exercised by the chairperson directly or through elected or appointed officials subordinate to the chairperson.

(4) The chairperson shall, in the performance of his or her functions, be answerable to the district council.

(5) The chairperson shall make a report to the council on the state of affairs of the district, at least once a year.

14. Removal of chairperson from office

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the chairperson may be removed from office by the council by a resolution supported by two-thirds of all the members of the council on any of the following grounds—

- (a) abuse of office;
- (b) corruption;
- (c) incompetence;
- (d) misconduct or misbehaviour;
- (e) such physical or mental incapacity as would render the chairperson incapable of performing the duties of chairperson; or
- (f) failure or refusal, without justifiable reasons, to implement lawful council decisions.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the seat of a district chairperson shall fall vacant if—

- (a) the holder resigns in writing addressed to the speaker;
- (b) the holder, without reasonable cause or notification of the speaker, fails to attend four consecutive meetings of the council;
- (c) the holder is found guilty of the violation of the Leadership Code and the punishment imposed includes the vacation of office;
- (d) the holder accepts appointment to a public office;
- (e) the holder is sentenced to death or to imprisonment exceeding six months without the option of a fine;
- (f) the holder has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude within the preceding six years; or
- (g) circumstances arise which disqualify the holder from occupying the office under any other law.

(3) For the purposes of removing the chairperson under subsection (1) other than under paragraph (e) of that subsection, a notice in writing signed by not less than one-third of all the members of the council shall be submitted to the speaker

- (a) stating that they intend to pass a resolution of the council to remove the chairperson on any of the grounds set out in subsection (1); and
- (b) setting out the particulars of the charge supported by the necessary documents, where applicable, on which it is claimed that the conduct of the chairperson be investigated for purposes of his or her removal.

(4) For avoidance of doubt, where a petition has been submitted to the speaker under subsection (2), no person shall withdraw his or her signature supporting the petition.

(5) The speaker shall within twenty-four hours after receipt of the notice referred to in subsection (3), cause a copy to be transmitted to the chairperson and the Minister.

(6) The Minister shall evaluate the notice in consultation with the Attorney General and if satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for doing so shall, within twenty-one days after receipt of the notice, constitute a tribunal consisting of a judge of the High Court or a person qualified to be appointed a judge of the High Court, as chairperson and two other persons all of whom shall be appointed by the Minister in consultation with the Chief Justice, to investigate the allegations.

- (7) A person shall not be eligible for appointment as a member of the tribunal unless that person—
- (a) is of high moral character and proven integrity; and
 - (b) possesses considerable experience and demonstrated competence and is of high calibre in the conduct of public affairs.

(8) The chairperson is entitled to appear at the proceedings of the tribunal and to be represented by a lawyer or other expert or person of his or her choice.

(9) If the tribunal determines that there is a prima facie case for the removal of the chairperson under subsection (1) other than paragraph (e), then if the council passes the resolution supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of all members of the council, the chairperson shall cease to hold office.

(10) For the purposes of the removal of the chairperson on grounds of physical or mental incapacity under subsection (1)(e), there shall be submitted to the speaker a notice in writing signed by not less than one-third of all the members of the council—

- (a) stating that they intend to pass a resolution of the council for the removal of the chairperson from office on grounds of physical or mental incapacity; and
- (b) giving particulars of the alleged incapacity.

(11) The speaker shall, within seven days after receipt of a notice under subsection (10), cause a copy to be transmitted to the chairperson and the Chief Justice.

(12) The Chief Justice shall, within seven days after receipt of the notice transmitted under subsection (11) and in consultation with the medical council, constitute a medical board comprising three qualified medical specialists to examine the chairperson in respect of the alleged incapacity and to report its findings to the council.

(13) The Chief Justice shall, within seven days, constitute a medical board and inform the relevant chairperson accordingly.

(14) The medical board shall examine the chairperson within fourteen days after its establishment.

(15) The chairperson shall submit himself or herself to the medical board for examination on a day and time determined by the board.

(16) If the medical board determines that the relevant chairperson is by reason of physical or mental incapacity unable to perform the functions of the office of chairperson and the council passes the resolution for his or her removal supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of all the members of the council, the chairperson shall cease to hold office.

(17) If the medical board, after the expiration of the period of fourteen days referred to in subsection (14), reports that the relevant chairperson has failed or refused to submit to the medical board and the council passes the resolution for his or her removal supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of all the members of the council, the chairperson shall cease to hold office.

(18) The speaker shall convene the council within fourteen days after the receipt of the report of the tribunal or medical board.

(19) The motion for a resolution for the removal of the chairperson shall be moved in the council within fourteen days after the receipt by the speaker of the report of the tribunal or the medical board, failure of which shall render the resolution time-barred.

(20) The chairperson is entitled to appear in person and be heard during the proceedings of the council relating to the motion for a resolution under this section.

(21) The provisions of subsections (1) to (20) shall apply to the removal of the chairperson of the lower local government council except that—

- (a) the notice under subsections (3) and (10) shall be submitted to the district council speaker who shall convene and preside over the council meeting under subsection (1) within fourteen days after the receipt of the report of the tribunal or medical board for the removal of the chairperson;
- (b) wherever “Chief Justice” appears it shall be substituted by “chief magistrate”; and
- (c) under subsection (6) “judge of the High Court” shall be substituted by “magistrate not below grade I”.

(22) The expenses of the tribunal and the medical board shall be met by the relevant council.

15. Mayor

The chairperson of a city shall carry the title of mayor.

16. District executive committee

(1) There shall be an executive committee for each district council which shall perform the executive functions of the council.

- (2) A district executive committee shall consist of—
 - (a) the chairperson;
 - (b) the vice chairperson; and

(c) such number of secretaries, not exceeding three, as the council may determine.

(2) Section 76(2) shall apply to the appointment of a Deputy or Assistant Resident District Commissioner.

(3) The Deputy or Assistant Resident District Commissioner shall assist the Resident District Commissioner in carrying out the functions of the office in a specified area of jurisdiction generally, as may be determined by the President.

(4) There shall be such other officers and staff as the Public Service Commission may, in consultation with the Ministry responsible for the public service, determine.

79. Removal of Resident District Commissioner, etc.

A district council may recommend to the appointing authority the removal of a Resident District Commissioner or a Deputy or Assistant Resident District Commissioner by a resolution supported by two-thirds of all the members of the council, stating the grounds for the recommendation for such removal.

PART VIII—FINANCIAL AND OTHER MATTERS80. Local governments' budgetary powers and procedures

(1) Local governments shall have the right and obligation to formulate, approve and execute their budgets and plans provided the budgets shall be balanced.

(2) Local governments shall always accord national priority programme areas preferential budget outlays.

(3) Where the Local Government Finance Commission becomes aware that a local government council budget significantly detracts from priority programme areas, the Commission shall inform the council, and the President through the Minister for appropriate action.

(4) A local government budget shall reflect all revenues to be collected or received by the local government, and to be appropriated for each year.

(5) A local government budget for the ensuing financial year shall always take into account the approved development plan of that local government, the Charter for Fiscal Responsibility and the budget framework paper for that year.

(6) The chairperson of a local government shall, not later than the first day of April, cause to be prepared and laid before the council, the estimates of revenue and expenditure of the council for the next financial year.

(7) The council shall, not later than the 31st day of May, consider and approve the budget and work plan of the council.

(8) The council may revise the development plan, where necessary, to harmonise it with the approved budget.

(9) The approved budget shall take effect on the first day of July in each year.

81. Revenue and financial and accounting regulations

(1) Local governments' revenue generally shall be regulated as provided in Schedule 7 to this Act.

(2) The Minister shall, by statutory instrument, make financial and accounting regulations prescribing the financial and accountability measures for compliance by all local governments.

(3) Notwithstanding any other penalty imposed by any other law, a surcharge may be imposed on any councillor or a member of staff who is responsible for loss of money or loss or damage to property or stores in accordance with the financial and accounting regulations.

82. Financial autonomy of urban local governments

Urban local governments shall have autonomy over their financial and planning matters in relation to the district councils, but their plans shall be incorporated in the district plan.

83. Power to levy taxes

(1) Local governments may levy, charge and collect fees and taxes, including rates, rents, royalties, stamp duties and registration and licensing fees and the fees and taxes that are specified in Schedule 7 to this Act.

(2) The taxes that local governments may levy, charge and collect shall include the following—

- (a) local government hotel tax to be charged on all hotel and lodge room occupants and to be collected and paid by hotel owners; and
- (b) local service tax to be levied on all persons in gainful employment or who practice any profession or on business persons and commercial farmers who produce on a large scale.

(3) The local government hotel tax shall be collected by the management of the hotels or lodges who shall remit the tax to the relevant local governments.

(4) The local service tax shall be spent on basic local services such as sanitation, education, health, construction and maintenance of roads in the area of jurisdiction of the local government.

(5) Schedule 7 to this Act shall apply to taxes imposed under subsection (2).

(6) Each local government shall draw up a comprehensive list of all its internal revenue sources and maintain data on total potential collectable revenues.

(7) A local government may collect fees or taxes on behalf of the Government as its agent; and where a local government acts as an agent, a portion of the funds collected shall be retained by the local government as may be agreed upon between the two parties; and any extra obligation transferred to a local government by the Government shall be fully financed by the Government.

(8) A village council may, with the approval of the subcounty council, impose a service fee in the course of execution of its functions.

84. Financial year

The financial year of local government councils shall be the period of twelve months commencing on the 1st day of July and ending on the 30th day of June of the following year.

85. Appropriation of funds

(1) No appropriation of funds by a local government shall be made out of the funds of the council unless approved in a budget by the council of that local government.

(2) No money shall be withdrawn from the general fund account or any other accounts of the district unless the withdrawal has been approved by the Auditor General or his or her representative.

(3) No financial obligation shall be placed on a local government by the Government after the enactment of the Appropriation Act without providing for funds for the discharge of that obligation.

86. Grants from Government

(1) The President shall, for each financial year, cause to be presented to Parliament proposals of money to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund as—

- (a) unconditional grant in accordance with subsection (2);
- (b) conditional grant in accordance with subsection (3);
- (c) equalisation grant in accordance with subsection (4);
- (d) revenue from royalties arising from petroleum production in accordance with section 73 of the Public Finance Management Act.

(2) An unconditional grant is the minimum grant that shall be paid to local governments to run decentralised services and shall be calculated in the manner specified in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution.

(3) A conditional grant shall consist of money given to local governments to finance programmes agreed upon between the Government and the local governments and shall be expended for the purposes for which it was made and in accordance with the conditions agreed upon.

(4) An equalisation grant is the money to be paid to local governments for giving subsidies or making special provisions for the least developed districts and shall be based on the degree to which a local government unit is lagging behind the national average standard for a particular service.

(5) The local government councils shall indicate how conditional and equalisation grants obtained from the Government are to be passed on to local government councils with a smaller jurisdiction or lower councils.

(6) The Government shall remit conditional, unconditional and equalisation grants direct to district, city, city division, municipal and town councils.

87. Borrowing powers

For the purposes of Article 195 of the Constitution, a local government may borrow money or accept and use a grant or assistance as is provided in Schedule 7 to this Act.

88. Percentage of revenue to be retained or distributed to lower councils

(1) In the city and municipal councils, revenue shall be collected by the division councils, and a division council shall retain fifty percent of all the revenue the division council collects in its area of jurisdiction and remit fifty percent to the city or municipal council.

(2) Where a division fails to remit fifty percent of its revenue under subsection (1), the city or municipal council shall take appropriate measures to make full recovery of the revenue due to the city or municipal council, which may include, but not limited to, withholding any money that may be due to the division from the central Government or any other source.

(3) The city or municipal council may, with the concurrence of a division in its area of jurisdiction, collect revenue on behalf of the division.

(4) Where the city fails to remit revenue referred to under subsection (3), the division council shall retain the revenue due to the city to make full recovery of the revenue due to it.

(5) The town council's revenue shall be collected by the respective town council.

(6) In rural areas, revenue shall be collected by the subcounty councils, and a subcounty council shall retain sixty-five percent, or any other higher percentage as the district council may approve, of the revenue collected by the subcounty council and pass the remaining percentage over to the district.

(7) Where a subcounty fails to remit thirty-five percent or any lower percentage approved by the district council under subsection (6), the district council shall take appropriate measures to make full recovery of the revenue due to it.

(8) A district council may, with the concurrence of a subcounty, collect revenue on behalf of the subcounty council but shall remit sixty-five percent of the revenue so collected to the relevant subcounty.

(9) Where a district council fails to remit the sixty-five percent referred to in subsection (8), the subcounty shall retain a percentage higher than that provided for in subsection (6) to make full recovery of the revenue due to it which is withheld by the district council.

(10) The distribution of grants by the subcounty councils to other councils shall be as is provided under Schedule 7 to this Act.

(11) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (10), the disbursement of funds to any council shall be upon accountability for previous release to that council.

(12) A lower local government council shall share equally with the respective higher local government the costs for printing of licences, books of accounts and receipt books, provided the costs do not include salaries.

89. Salaries and gratuities to be paid out of Consolidated Fund

Salaries and gratuities of political leaders of local governments shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

- (6) Every meeting of the local government public accounts committee shall be presided over by the chairperson and in his or her absence by a member elected by the members present.
- (7) Three members of the local government public accounts committee shall form quorum at any meeting of the committee.
- (8) The office of the clerk to the district council shall be the secretariat to the local government public accounts committee.
- (9) A local government public accounts committee shall examine the reports of the Auditor General, chief internal auditor and any reports of commissions of inquiry and may, in relation to the reports, require the attendance of any councillor or officer to explain matters arising from the reports.
- (10) A local government public accounts committee shall submit its report to the council and to the Minister responsible for local governments who shall lay the report before Parliament.

(11) The chairperson of the council and the Chief Administrative Officer or Town Clerk shall implement the recommendations of the local government public accounts committee and report on actions taken or to be taken on the recommendations to persons listed in section 91(3).

(12) A local government public accounts committee shall have powers to recommend to the police, arrest of suspects in respect of cases involving corruption or abuse of authority of public office.

(13) The expenses of the local governments public accounts committees are charged on the Consolidated Fund.

(14) The members of a local government public accounts committee shall hold office for a period of five years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for one further term only.

93. Removal of member of local government public accounts committee

(1) A member of a local government public accounts committee, including the chairperson, may be removed from the committee by the district council by a resolution supported by two-thirds of the members of the council, on the recommendation of the executive committee, but can only be removed on the following grounds—

- (a) abuse of office;
- (b) incompetence;
- (c) failure to attend three consecutive ordinary meetings without valid reasons acceptable to the committee; or
- (d) inability to perform the functions of that office arising from physical or mental incapacity.

(2) The seat of a member of a local government public accounts committee shall fall vacant if a member-

- (a) dies; or
- (b) resigns.

(3) Section 14(21) shall apply to the removal of a member of a local government public accounts committee.

(4) A vacancy arising out of subsection (1) or (2) shall be filled following the procedure prescribed in section 92(1).

94. Internal audit

(1) Every district, city, municipal or town council shall provide for an internal audit department.

(2) The internal audit department shall be responsible for—

- (a) appraising the soundness and application of the accounting, functional and operational controls of the council;
- (b) evaluating the effectiveness of the risk management processes of the council; and
- (c) providing assurance on the efficiency and effectiveness of the economy in the administration of programmes and operations of the council.

(3) The head of the internal audit department shall prepare quarterly audit reports and shall submit them to the speaker giving a copy to the local government public accounts committee.

95. Accountability

(1) In accordance with section 70, the Chief Administrative Officer shall be the accounting officer in charge of a district and shall be accountable to the district council for the funds in the district.

(2) A person holding a political or public office at the district or lower local government council, who directs or concurs in the use of public funds or property contrary to existing instructions and regulations, shall be accountable for any loss arising from that use and shall be required to make good the loss even if he or she has ceased to hold that office.

(3) In accordance with section 71, the Town Clerk shall be the accounting officer in charge of a city, municipal or town council and shall be accountable to the respective council for funds of the council.

District contracts committees

96. District contracts committees

(1) There shall be a district contracts committee in each district.

(2) The district contracts committee shall comprise a chairperson, a member representing the town councils and three other members, all of whom shall be nominated by the Chief Administrative Officer from among the public officers of the district council and approved by the Secretary to the Treasury.

(3) A district contracts committee shall seek the services of the district legal adviser in the execution of its work.

(4) The members of the district contracts committee shall be appointed with due regard to their technical competence and skills for the discharge of the functions of the district contracts committee.

(5) The members of the district contracts committee shall hold office for three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for only one more term.

(6) The quorum at any meeting of the district contracts committee is three members including the chairperson.

97. Functions of district contracts committees

A district contracts committee shall, in respect of the district council and lower local government councils and administrative units within the district, perform the functions specified in sections 30 and 31 of the Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Assets Act.

98. Procurement and disposal unit

(1) Every district shall have a procurement and disposal unit staffed at the appropriate level and shall be headed by a procurement officer who shall be the secretary to the district contracts committee and who shall have no right to vote at a meeting of the district contracts committee.

(2) The functions of the procurement and disposal unit shall be as specified in sections 33 and 34 of the Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Assets Act.

99. Municipal or city division contracts committees

(1) A municipal or city division council shall establish a municipal or city division contracts committee to serve the municipality or city division.

(2) A municipal or city division contracts committee shall also cater for the procurement of municipal or city division and other lower local government councils within its jurisdiction.

(3) A municipal or city division contracts committee shall comprise a chairperson and four other members nominated by a Town Clerk from among the public officers of the district or city employed in the municipality or city division and approved by the Secretary to the Treasury.

(4) A municipal or city division contracts committee shall seek the services of the district legal adviser in the execution of its work.

(5) The quorum at any meeting of the municipal or city division contracts committee is three members, including the chairperson.

(6) In the absence of the chairperson, the members of the municipal or city division contracts committee present shall elect a person from among their number to preside over the meeting.

(7) The members of a municipal or city division contracts committee shall hold office for three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for only one more term.

(8) The members of the municipal or city division contracts committee shall be appointed with due regard to their technical competence and skills required for the discharge of the functions of the contracts committee.

100. Application of sections 97 and 98 to municipal contracts committee

Sections 97 and 98 shall, with the necessary modifications, apply to a municipal contracts committee.

101. Certain officers not to qualify to be members of contracts committee

The following persons shall not be qualified to be members of a contracts committee

- (a) the Chief Administrative Officer of a district;
- (b) the chief finance officer of a district;
- (c) the Town Clerk of a town council or of a municipality; and
- (d) the finance officer of a municipality.

102. Reports of contracts committee

(1) Every district contracts committee and municipal contracts committee shall publish quarterly summary reports of all procurements made by it during the quarter concerned containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) Every contracts committee referred to in subsection (1) shall give a copy of the published quarterly report to the council for which the procurement was made, the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for local governments and the Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Assets Authority.

103. Delegation of powers of contracts committee

(1) A contracts committee may recommend to the accounting officer to delegate any of its functions of procurement to a user department.

(2) The accounting officer shall be responsible for supervising the operation of a user department to which the procurement functions of the committee have been delegated under subsection (1).

(3) A user department to which procurement functions have been delegated shall submit to the accounting officer reports containing such information as may be prescribed by the regulations.

(4) In this section, “user department” means any department, division, branch, and a lower local government or section of the procuring and disposing entity, including any project unit or community groups working under the authority of the procuring and disposing entity, which initiates procurement and disposal requirements and is the user of the requirements; and includes such other body or bodies as may be prescribed.

104. Use of contracts committee of another local government

Where in the case of any local government there is, for the time being, no contracts committee appointed, the Secretary to the Treasury may, in consultation with the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for local governments, allow the local government to use the services of another local government.

PART IX—INSPECTION, MONITORING AND COORDINATION OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

105. Coordination, guidance, monitoring and inspection of local governments

The Ministry responsible for local governments shall be responsible for the guidance, inspection, monitoring and coordination of local governments to ensure compliance with the provisions of this Act and any other law.

106. Technical support

For purposes of ensuring implementation of national policies and adherence to performance standards on the part of local governments, Ministries shall inspect, monitor and, where necessary, offer technical advice, support, supervision and training within their respective sectors.

107. Mandate of line Ministries in relation to local governments

A Government line Ministry shall—

- (a) monitor and coordinate Government initiatives and policies as they apply to local governments;
- (b) coordinate and advise persons and organisations in relation to projects involving direct relations with local governments;
- (c) assist in the provision of technical assistance to local governments; and
- (d) establish minimum national standards of service delivery in the sectors under its jurisdiction.

108. Inspection and monitoring of local governments

(1) The inspection of local governments by the line Ministries and other State organs authorised by law shall promote adherence to the law and without limiting the generality of the foregoing shall—

- (a) promote and foster adherence to the rule of law and principles of natural justice and good governance; and
- (b) foster the elimination of corruption and abuse of office.

(2) Subject to the Constitution and any other law, an authorised person carrying out the inspection shall have powers

- (a) to enter and inspect the premises or property of any council or local government as may be relevant to inspection;
- (b) to inspect books of accounts, records, stores and any other documents and require any person to produce any documents or item connected with the inspection and where necessary retain any document or item connected with the case being investigated; and
- (c) to look into any matter on his or her own initiative or upon complaint made to him or her by any member of the public, whether or not that person has personally suffered any injustice by reason of that matter.

(3) An authorised person carrying out the inspection may attend any meeting of a council or committee of a council.

109. Minister to give guidance

(1) Where, on receipt of a report on a council, the Minister is satisfied that a duty or power of a council is being exercised in an improper, unlawful or inefficient manner, the Minister may in respect of that duty or power cause a meeting of the council to be called and point out the irregularities found and give the council any guidance necessary.

(2) Where the Minister considers that the matter is of a grave nature, the Minister may institute a commission of inquiry to look into the matter.

(3) Where the findings of a commission of inquiry under this section disclose that an offence may have been committed, the Minister shall refer the matter to the relevant authority for appropriate action.

110. Taking over of district administration by President

(1) The President may, with the approval of two-thirds of all the members of Parliament, assume the executive powers of any district in any of the following circumstances—

- (a) where the district council so requests and it is in the public interest to do so;
- (b) where a state of emergency has been declared in that district or in Uganda generally; or
- (c) where it has become extremely difficult or impossible for a district government to function.

(2) The exercise by the President of the power conferred by this section may be done through such person or officer as the President may appoint, and the legislative functions shall be exercised by statutory instruments.

(3) Unless approved by Parliament for a longer term, the exercise by the President of the power conferred by this section shall be for a period not exceeding ninety days.

- (4) Upon the expiry of the term under subsection (3)—
 - (a) the President shall hand back the administration of the district to the incumbent district government; or
 - (b) if Parliament decides that the prevailing circumstances still make it impossible for the incumbent district government to assume the administration of the district then—
 - (i) where the unexpired term of the council is longer than twelve months, the President shall cause elections to be held for a new district council within sixty days; or
 - (ii) where the unexpired term of the council is less than twelve months, the President shall continue to administer the district until the next elections are held.

111. Financing of services during takeover period

(1) During the period in which the President has taken over the administration of a district, the decentralised services in the area of jurisdiction of that local government council shall be financed by direct appropriation from the national budget to a district vote held by the Chief Administrative Officer.

(2) The conditional grant shall, during the period under subsection (1), be utilised under the supervision of the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for local governments.

PART X—LOCAL GOVERNMENT COUNCILS ELECTIONS

Electoral Commission, returning officers and other election officers

112. Electoral Commission to organise local council elections

The Electoral Commission shall organise, conduct and supervise election of the local councils.

113. Transmission of voters register to political parties and organisations

- (1) Notwithstanding section 19 of the Electoral Commission Act—
- (a) the Electoral Commission shall not be required to provide paper copies of the voters register to registered political parties and organisations in the case of local council elections; and
 - (b) the Electoral Commission shall provide, as soon as practicable after nomination but, in any case, not later than two weeks before the polling day, an updated electronic version of the voters register to political parties and organisations or to an independent nominated candidate participating in the local council elections.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the voters register in respect of local council elections shall not require photographs.

114. Publication of voters register in Gazette and posting of relevant parts of register on notice boards in every parish

Notwithstanding section 32 of the Electoral Commission Act, in the case of local council elections, the Electoral Commission shall cause to be posted on the notice boards in every parish that part of the voters register relating to that parish.

115. Returning officers

(1) The Electoral Commission shall, by notice in the Gazette, appoint a returning officer and an assistant returning officer for each electoral district.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Electoral Commission may, by notice in the Gazette, appoint a returning officer and an assistant returning officer for a municipality, city division or other area in an electoral district as the Electoral Commission determines necessary.

(3) A person appointed as a returning officer or an assistant returning officer shall be a person of high moral character and proven integrity and shall not be a local government officer.

(4) A returning officer or an assistant returning officer may resign office by writing under his or her hand addressed to the Electoral Commission; and a returning officer or an assistant returning officer may be removed from office by the Electoral Commission where he or she is—

- (a) found by a court to have participated in election irregularities or illegal practices or participated in the commission of an election offence;
- (b) incapable of performing his or her duties under this Act by reason of illness or physical or mental infirmity;
- (c) incompetent;
- (d) proved to be partial in the performance of his or her duties under this Act;
- (e) proved to have behaved in a corrupt manner in relation to his or her duties as returning officer; or
- (f) transferred from the district for which he or she was appointed.

(5) Where a returning officer vacates his or her office in accordance with subsection (4), the assistant returning officer shall perform the functions of the returning officer until a substantive returning officer is appointed in accordance with subsection (7).

(6) A returning officer may, in writing, delegate any of his or her duties to the assistant returning officer.

(7) Where the office of returning officer or an assistant returning officer becomes vacant, the appointment of a returning officer or an assistant returning officer for the relevant district shall be made within fourteen days from the date the Electoral Commission is informed of the vacancy.

116. Polling stations

Each returning officer of a district shall, in consultation with the Electoral Commission, create as many polling divisions and polling stations as are convenient for the casting of votes by voters taking into account—

- (a) the elections being conducted; and
- (b) the distance to be travelled by the voters and the geographical features of the district.

117. Presiding officer

- (1) A returning officer—
 - (a) shall appoint one presiding officer and such number of polling assistants as the Electoral Commission may determine;
 - (b) may for good cause, at any time, before or during the polling day, replace any presiding officer or polling assistant; and
 - (c) may appoint at least three counting officers to assist in tallying the votes cast by the voters on polling day.

(2) Where the presiding officer dies or is unable to discharge his or her duties on the polling day, the returning officer may appoint another person and where it is not possible, the oldest of the three assistants shall act as the presiding officer.

Voters registers, rolls and notice of elections

118. Voters registers and rolls

(1) The voters registers and rolls maintained under the parliamentary elections law or any other voters registers or rolls maintained under any other law relating to general elections in Uganda shall apply to the elections of local governments.

(2) A district registrar designated under the parliamentary elections law or under any other law relating to general elections in Uganda shall, on a continuous basis, maintain and update the different voters registers or rolls for the district in relation to the elections under this Act.

(3) In the performance of his or her duties under subsection (2), the district registrar shall be under the direction and control of the Electoral Commission.

(4) The provisions of Part III of the Electoral Commission Act or any other law relating to the national register of voters and voters rolls shall apply to the registers and voters rolls maintained for purposes of elections under this Act with such modifications and adaptations as may be necessary.

119. Notice of election day

The Electoral Commission shall issue a public notice, which shall be published in the official Gazette and public media, appointing a day or days on which elections of all or a category of local government councils or administrative councils shall take place.

Demarcation of electoral areas

120. Population quota

(1) Subject to Article 181 of the Constitution, the Electoral Commission shall demarcate local government electoral areas in such a manner that the number of inhabitants in the electoral area is approximately

- (a) one hundred thousand in the case of a city;
- (b) thirty thousand in the case of a district;
- (c) fifteen thousand in the case of a municipality or city division;
- (d) seven thousand in the case of a municipal division or town; and
- (e) twelve thousand in the case of a subcounty.

(2) The number of inhabitants in an electoral area may be greater or less than other electoral areas in order to take account of means of communication, geographical features and density of population.

(3) The population quota for demarcation of electoral areas for women representatives shall be determined by the requirement of women constituting one-third of any local council being considered.

(4) The Electoral Commission may reduce the population quota provided under subsection (1) if using that quota the total number of councillors is less than ten.

121. Demarcation of electoral areas

- (1) The demarcation of electoral areas shall ensure that—
- (a) in the case of a district, every subcounty or municipal division is represented at the district council and that no subcounty or division shall be subdivided for the purposes of adding a part of it to another subcounty or division;
 - (b) in the case of a city, every division is represented at the city council and that no division shall be subdivided for the purposes of adding a part of it to another division;
 - (c) in the case of a subcounty, municipality, city division or town, every parish or ward shall be represented at the relevant local government council and that no parish or ward shall be subdivided for the purposes of adding a part of it to another parish or ward.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the following electoral areas may be demarcated into more than one constituency in accordance with section 120(1)—

- (a) in the case of a district
 - (i) a subcounty; or
 - (ii) a municipal division;
- (b) in the case of a city, a city division;
- (c) in the case of a subcounty, municipality, city division, town or municipal division—
 - (i) a parish; or
 - (ii) a ward.

122. Demarcation of electoral areas for women

Notwithstanding section 121(1), whenever there are fewer women seats than lower local government units, the electoral areas for women councillors derived from section 10(e) may bring together two or more lower local council units using a population quota determined by the Electoral Commission.

Election of chairperson

123. Election of chairperson

(1) Except for the village or cell council and parish or ward council, the election of the chairperson shall be by universal adult suffrage through a secret ballot using one ballot box for all candidates at each polling station.

(2) The election of village or cell council and parish or ward council chairperson shall be by the electorate lining behind the candidate nominated for the office, their representatives, portraits or symbols.

(3) A person shall not qualify for election as chairperson of a district or city unless that person—

- (a) is a citizen of Uganda;
- (b) is ordinarily resident in that district or city;
- (c) is a registered voter;
- (d) has completed a minimum education of advanced level standard or its equivalent;
- (e) has submitted to the returning officer of a district or city, on or before the nomination day, a document, in this Act referred to as a nomination paper, in Form EC 1 specified in Schedule 8 to this Act, which document shall be signed by two persons, nominating him or her as a candidate;
- (f) attaches to his or her nomination paper, a list of the names of fifty registered voters from each of at least two-thirds of the electoral areas, and each voter shall have appended to that list, his or her signature, physical address and voters registration number as specified in Form EC 1 of Schedule 8 to this Act.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), any of the following persons wishing to stand for election as a district chairperson shall establish his or her qualification with the Electoral Commission as a person holding a minimum qualification of advanced level or its equivalent at least two months before nomination day in the case of a general election, and two weeks in the case of a by-election—

- (a) persons whether their qualifications are obtained from Uganda or outside Uganda, who are claiming to have their qualification accepted as equivalent to advanced level education;

- (b) persons claiming to have advanced level qualifications obtained from outside Uganda.

(5) A person required to establish his or her qualification under subsection (4) shall do so by the production of a certificate issued to him or her by the National Council for Higher Education in consultation with the Uganda National Examinations Board.

(6) A person who claims to possess a qualification referred to in subsection (4)(b) shall, before the issue of the certificate, prove to the satisfaction of the National Council for Higher Education that admission to that qualification was obtained on the basis of advanced level standard of education or its equivalent.

(7) For the avoidance of doubt, if a candidate has an advanced level certificate obtained in Uganda or qualifications higher than the prescribed qualification obtained in Uganda or obtained from the former University of East Africa or any of its constituent colleges, then there shall be no need for the verification of his or her qualifications by the National Council for Higher Education.

(8) The Electoral Commission shall not accept for the purposes of this section, a statutory declaration or affidavit as evidence of an academic qualification required by this section.

(9) A person shall not qualify for election as chairperson of a municipality, town, division or subcounty unless that person—

- (a) is a citizen of Uganda;
- (b) is ordinarily resident in the municipality, town, division, or subcounty;
- (c) is a registered voter;
- (d) has submitted to the returning officer of a district or a public officer designated by the returning officer for that purpose on or before the nomination day, a document, in this Act referred to as a nomination paper, in Form EC 1 specified in Schedule 8 to this Act, which document shall be signed by two persons nominating him or her as a candidate; and
- (e) attaches to his or her nomination paper, a list of the names of twenty registered voters from each electoral area, and each of the twenty registered voters shall have appended to that list, his or her name, signature, physical address and voters registration number as specified in Form EC 1 of Schedule 8 to this Act.

(10) A person shall not subscribe to more than one nomination paper, and no person shall give his or her support under subsection (3) or (9) to more than one candidate for the same office.

(11) Any person who contravenes subsection (10) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding three currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both.

- (12) The nomination paper shall be accompanied by
- (a) a declaration in Form EC 2 specified in Schedule 8 to this Act;
 - (b) a declaration of income, assets and liabilities in Form EC 3 specified in Schedule 8 to this Act;
 - (c) a non-refundable fee specified in section 124 for which a receipt shall be issued;
 - (d) three postcard size copies of a recent photograph of the proposed candidate.

124. Payment of non-refundable fee

For purposes of section 123(12)(c), a non-refundable fee of—

- (a) ten currency points in the case of a district and city;
- (b) five currency points in the case of a municipality; and
- (c) 2.5 currency points in the case of a city division, a town or a sub county, shall be paid to the relevant local government council in cash or by bank draft.

125. Where candidate dies

(1) Where, after the close of nomination and before closing of polls, a candidate dies, the election in the electoral area shall be postponed and the Electoral Commission shall declare another nomination day giving reasonable time to enable new candidates to be nominated.

(2) Where nominations are fixed under subsection (1), a candidate previously and validly nominated shall not be required to be nominated again.

(3) Where fresh nomination days are fixed under subsection (1), the returning officer shall, where applicable, postpone the election to another convenient date.

(4) An election arising out of a postponement under subsection (3) shall be conducted in accordance with this Act.

126. Vacancy in council

Subject to Article 81(3) of the Constitution, where there is a vacancy in a council, the Electoral Commission shall hold a by-election to fill the vacant position in the council within ninety days from the occurrence of the vacancy.

127. Where one of only two candidates withdraws or is disqualified

Where there are two candidates and one withdraws or is disqualified or ceases to be a candidate by reason of his or her ceasing to qualify for election, the returning officer shall immediately declare the remaining candidate elected unopposed.

128. Results of chairperson election

(1) The returning officer shall declare as the elected chairperson, the candidate who has obtained the largest number of votes cast.

(2) The Electoral Commission shall ascertain, declare and publish in writing the results of a chairperson's election within forty-eight hours from the close of polling.

(3) A declaration executed by the Electoral Commission under subsection (2) and bearing the seal of the commission shall be evidence that the person named in the declaration has been elected chairperson of the relevant council.

(4) Where two or more candidates tie in the leading position, the returning officer shall communicate the results of the election to the Electoral Commission which shall arrange to have the elections repeated.

(5) The candidature for elections repeated under subsection (4) shall be limited to the candidates who tied in the first election.

(6) No fresh nominations or candidates meeting shall be required for elections conducted under subsection (4).

(7) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), an election organised under subsection (4) shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Local government councils elections

129. Qualifications of councillors

(1) A person is qualified to be a member of a district or city council, other than the chairperson, if that person

- (a) is a citizen of Uganda; and
- (b) is a registered voter.

(2) A person shall not be elected a local government councillor if that person—

- (a) is suffering from mental illness;
- (b) is acting in or holding an office the functions of which involve a responsibility for or in connection with the conduct of an election under this Act;
- (c) is a traditional or cultural leader as defined in Article 246(6) of the Constitution;
- (d) is under sentence of death or imprisonment exceeding six months without the option of a fine;
- (e) is employed by that local government council; or
- (f) is not ordinarily resident in that local government area.

(3) Under the movement political system, a person elected a chairperson or member of a local government executive committee when holding a public office shall resign the public office before assuming the office of chairperson or a member of the executive committee.

(4) Under the movement political system, a person holding a public office who wishes to be a candidate for a local government office or councillor under this Act shall apply for annual leave or leave without pay at least fourteen days before nominations commence.

(5) Under the multiparty political system, a public officer, a person employed in any department or agency of Government, an employee of a local council or an employee of a body in which government has a controlling interest, who wishes to stand for election to a local council office shall resign his or her office at least thirty days before nomination day in accordance with the procedure of the service or employment to which he or she belongs.

(6) Subsection (5) does not apply to persons representing workers.

(7) For the avoidance of doubt, a public officer employed by a local council shall not be a councillor of that local council or any other local council.

130. Election of women representatives to councils

(1) The election of women councillors on local government councils shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions for election of the relevant councils under this Part with such modifications as may be deemed necessary by the Electoral Commission.

(2) The election of women councillors shall be by universal adult suffrage through a secret ballot using one ballot box for candidates at each polling station.

131. Election of special interest groups councillors

(1) The youth councillors shall be elected by an electoral college consisting of—

- (a) in case of a district council—
 - (i) all subcounty youth councils; and
 - (ii) the district youth executive;
- (b) in the case of a city council—
 - (i) all division youth councils; and
 - (ii) the city youth executive;
- (c) in the case of a municipal council—
 - (i) all parish or ward youth councils; and
 - (ii) the municipal youth executive; and
- (d) in the case of a subcounty, town or division council—
 - (i) all parish or ward youth councils; and
 - (ii) the subcounty, town or division youth executive as the case may be.

(2) A councillor representing persons with disabilities shall be elected in accordance with the electoral structure provided for in the Persons with Disabilities Act as follows—

- (a) in case of the village council, all willing persons with disability in each village shall assemble to elect five executive members, at least one of whom shall be a woman and the chairperson of the persons with disabilities executive committee shall become the secretary for disability affairs at the village council;
- (b) in case of the parish, the five persons with disabilities executive committee members for each village shall assemble at the parish or ward to elect the executive committee members for persons with disabilities and the chairperson of the persons with disabilities executive committee at the parish level or ward level shall become the representative of persons with disabilities at the parish council;
- (c) in case of a subcounty, division council, or town council, the five persons with disabilities from each parish or ward shall assemble at the subcounty division or town council to elect two councillors representing persons with disability, male and female, to the subcounty, division or town council; and
- (d) in case of a district or city council, the five executive members from each subcounty or division council or town council shall assemble at the district or city council to elect two representatives, male and female, to the district council.

(3) Councillors representing the older persons shall be elected by the associations of the older persons forming an electoral college composed as follows—

- (a) in the case of the district, all members of the district executive committee and subcounty executive committees in the district;
- (b) in the case of a city, all members of the city executive committee and division executive committees; and
- (c) in the case of other urban councils and subcounty councils, all members of the town or division or subcounty executive committees and parish or ward executive committees.

(4) The Electoral Commission shall, where existing organisations are formed into electoral colleges to elect representatives of persons with disabilities at different levels of local governments, facilitate the organisations to establish the different bodies that form the electoral colleges.

(5) The Electoral Commission shall appoint returning officers and presiding officers as may appear to the Electoral Commission reasonably necessary for the purpose of conducting elections of representatives of each special interest group.

(6) The Electoral Commission shall appoint a day and time on which the elections for each special interest group shall be held.

(7) For all other matters not provided for relating to elections under this section, including the nominations of candidates, voting procedure and declaration of results, the provisions for general elections under this Part shall apply, with such modifications as may be appropriate for the relevant special interest group.

132. Nomination of candidates for local government councils

(1) The Electoral Commission shall publish in the Gazette and local media the nomination days and the time when candidates shall be nominated.

(2) The returning officer shall, in each district, name the places where and the time when nominations shall be made.

(3) The nomination of a candidate shall be submitted by the candidate himself or herself.

(4) A nomination paper specified as Form EC 4 in Schedule 8 to this Act shall be signed by the candidate and seconded by two registered voters and tendered to the returning officer with the following—

(a) the names and signatures of not less than five persons who are registered as voters in the constituency where the person is seeking nomination, and each person shall indicate his or her name, village, occupation and voters registration number which shall be part of or appended to Form EC 4 in Schedule 8 to this Act;

(b) Form EC 5 in Schedule 8 to this Act which shall be evidence of the candidate's appointment of his or her agent specifying the name, voters registration number, address and occupation of the official agent;

- (c) Form EC 6 in Schedule 8 to this Act indicating that the agent has accepted the appointment and has made a statement of oath before a commissioner for oaths or a person so authorised;
- (d) a statement under oath specified as Form EC 7 in Schedule 8 to this Act stating among other things—
 - (i) that the person seeking nomination is a citizen of Uganda;
 - (ii) that he or she is eighteen years of age or above; and
 - (iii) that he or she is not disqualified from being a local government councillor under this Act or any other law in force;
- (e) Form EC 8 in Schedule 8 to this Act indicating the candidate's consent to his or her nomination; and
- (f) a non-refundable nomination fee of
 - (i) in the case of a district, city or municipality, two and a half currency points; and
 - (ii) in the case of a town, city division or subcounty, one currency point,in cash or by bank draft payable to the respective local government council.

(5) The nomination paper shall be accompanied by two postcard-size photographs of the candidate's own face.

(6) A duplicate copy of the nomination paper certified by the returning officer shall be given to the candidate.

133. Sponsorship of candidates by political organisations or political parties

Under the multiparty political system, nomination of candidates may be made for election under this Act by a political organisation or political party sponsoring a candidate or by a candidate standing for election as an independent candidate without being sponsored by a political organisation or political party.

134. Where no candidate or one candidate is nominated

(i) Where at the close of the nomination day or days no person is duly nominated for election for an electoral area, the returning officer shall report to the Electoral Commission, and the Electoral Commission shall fix another day for nominations.

(2) Where only one candidate is nominated at the close of the nomination day or days, the person nominated shall be declared elected unopposed.

135. Withdrawal of candidature

(1) A candidate may withdraw his or her candidature at any time before the polling day by a written notice addressed to the returning officer and signed by the candidate.

(2) Where a candidate withdraws his or her candidature, the presiding officer shall, on the polling day—

- (a) post a notice of the withdrawal in a conspicuous place at the polling station; and
- (b) when delivering a ballot paper to each voter, audibly inform the voter of the candidate's withdrawal, if that candidate's name appears on the ballot paper.

136. Candidates meetings

(1) A candidate may hold individual public campaign meetings in any part of the local government electoral area for which the candidate seeks an election, between seven o'clock in the forenoon and six o'clock in the afternoon.

(2) Every candidate shall give a copy of his or her campaign programme to the returning officer and the returning officer shall ensure that campaign meetings by different candidates do not coincide.

(3) The returning officer shall forward a copy of every campaign programme submitted under subsection (2) to the Electoral Commission.

(4) The returning officer may, after consultation with all the candidates, organise one or more joint candidates' campaign meetings for those candidates who consent to hold such meetings.

(5) A candidate or a candidate's agent authorised in writing by the candidate to do so, may hold consultative meetings with the candidate's campaign agents for the purposes of planning and organising the candidate's election campaign.

(6) A candidate shall not hold any public campaign meeting under subsection (1) except in accordance with the programme submitted by the candidate to the returning officer under subsection (2).

(7) A candidate's agent may conduct campaign meetings on behalf of the candidate and otherwise conduct any campaign which the candidate is allowed to hold under this Act.

(8) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding forty-eight currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

137. Equal treatment for candidates

(1) During the campaign period every public officer and public authority and institution shall, as far as possible, give equal treatment to candidates.

(2) Subject to the Constitution and any other law, every candidate shall enjoy freedom of expression and access to information in the exercise of the right to campaign under this Act, but shall not be protected against any abusive or slanderous statements.

(3) A person shall not, while campaigning, use or publish defamatory words or words which are insulting or which constitute incitement of public disorder, insurrection, hatred, violence or which threaten war.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both and shall be disqualified as candidate.

(5) The Electoral Commission may issue guidelines to be followed by the candidates in the conduct of election campaigns.

138. Rights of candidates

(1) Every candidate in an election shall be afforded reasonable access to and use of State-owned communication media, if he or she requires it.

(2) Subject to any other law, during the campaign period any candidate may, either alone or in common with others, publish campaign materials in the form of books, booklets, pamphlets, leaflets, magazines, newspapers or posters intended to solicit votes from voters.

(3) A person shall not, during the campaign period, print, publish or distribute a newspaper, circular, book, booklet, leaflet, magazine or pamphlet containing an article, report, letter or other matter relating to the elections unless the author's names and addresses are appended to it.

(4) Any person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

139. Non-sectarian campaign

(1) A person shall not use a symbol or colour, which has a tribal or religious affiliation or any other sectarian connotation as a basis for that person's candidature for election or in support of that person's campaign.

(2) Under the movement political system, a person shall not use as a basis for his or her candidature or campaign a symbol or colour of a political party or organisation.

(3) Subject to any law, under the multiparty political system, political party or organisation symbols or colours may be used.

(4) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction—

- (a) in the case of an offence under subsection (1), to a fine not exceeding forty-eight currency points or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both; and
- (b) in the case of an offence under subsection (2), to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

140. Use of local council or Government facilities

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, where a candidate is a chairperson or holds any other political or public office, he or she shall not use local council or Government facilities for the purpose of campaigning for election under this Act.

(2) Where a candidate holds any political office, he or she shall, during the campaign period, restrict the use of the official facilities ordinarily attached to his or her office to the execution of his or her official duties.

(3) For the purpose of enforcing this section, the Electoral Commission shall, by writing, require any candidate to state in writing the facilities ordinarily attached to any office held by that person to which subsection (2) applies, and the candidate shall comply with the requirement.

(4) This section applies with the necessary modifications to an employee of a statutory corporation or company in which the Government owns a controlling interest and a member of a commission or committee established by the Constitution as it applies to a public officer.

(5) A person who contravenes any provision of this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

Voting and announcement of results

141. Polling and voting procedure

(1) Voting at every election for local government councils shall be by secret ballot using one ballot box at each polling station for candidates contesting for the same post.

(2) At the polling station, no presiding officer or any other person shall inquire about or attempt to see for whom a voter intends to vote.

(3) On polling day, all voters intending to vote shall form one line from a point at least twenty metres away from the table at which each voter is to place the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper.

(4) Voters who have cast their votes and all other persons in the vicinity of the polling station, other than election officers, candidates, agents, observers and monitors, shall stand or sit at least one hundred metres away from the table mentioned in subsection (3).

(5) Subject to subsection (7), at every polling station there shall be positioned—

- (a) a table where every voter shall report for identification in the voters roll and collection of a ballot paper;
- (b) a second table positioned at least fifteen metres from the first table, with an ink pad, two pens, each pen being attached to the table with a string measuring about one metre in length where every voter shall proceed and vote for a candidate of the voter's choice by fixing a tick or a thumb print in the space provided in the box against the picture of the candidate on the ballot paper and, after voting, fold the ballot paper lengthwise to enable it to be deposited in the slot of the ballot box and on this table, a basin or a similar object into which a voter shall place the ballot paper to mark the candidate;
- (c) a third table located at least ten metres away from the second table and on top of which shall rest a ballot box into which every voter shall deposit the folded ballot paper in the full view of all present; and
- (d) a fourth table located at least ten metres from the ballot box where every voter, after depositing the ballot paper into the ballot box, shall proceed and have the thumb on the voter's right hand, marked with indelible ink to indicate that the voter has cast the ballot.

(6) Candidates' agents shall sit one metre away from the table referred to in subsection (5)(a).

(7) Where for purposes of subsection (5)(b)—

- (a) the voter has no thumb on the right hand, the process specified in that paragraph shall be applied to the finger nearest to the position of the thumb on the voter's right hand;
- (b) the voter has no right hand, the process shall be applied to the left hand;
- (c) a voter has no fingers on the left or right hand, the voter may mark the tip of any hand with indelible ink; or

- (d) the voter has no hands, the process shall be applied to any other conspicuous part of the voter's body as the presiding officer may determine.

(8) The presiding officer at each polling station shall, at the commencement of the poll, in the presence of at least ten voters registered to vote at the polling station, open the first ballot box, turn it upside down with the open top facing down to ensure to the satisfaction of the voters present, that the ballot box is devoid of any contents and shall thereafter place the ballot box on the table in accordance with subsection (5)(d); and where more than one ballot box is used after the first is filled, the same procedure shall be followed in the full view of everyone present, prior to the placing on the table, of any additional ballot box.

(9) A person who contravenes subsection (8) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty-four currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

(10) Where another election has to be held within three months after an election in which a voter and the hand of the voter has been marked in accordance with this section, the corresponding part of the hand other than the one marked in the first election shall be marked in the subsequent election; and where this is not possible such part of the body of the voter as the presiding officer shall determine, having regard to subsections (5) and (7), shall be marked.

(11) For the purposes of subsection (5), "table" includes a desk, a box, a chair, a stool and any other object with a hard and smooth surface that can be used as a table.

142. Assistance to illiterate voters and voters with disabilities

(1) Where a voter is by reason of blindness, illiteracy, old age or any other disability unable to fix the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper, that voter may report at the polling station accompanied by a person of his or her choice to assist the voter to fix the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper, on the voter's behalf, or the voter may, subject to subsection (3), request another person present at the polling station to assist the voter in that behalf.

(2) Any member of a voter's family may assist a voter under subsection (1) notwithstanding the fact that the former is below the age of eighteen years.

(3) A person shall not assist more than two voters to vote under this section.

(4) An election officer, a candidate's agent, an observer or monitor at any polling station is not permitted to assist any voter with a disability under subsection (1).

(5) No person is authorised to assist any voter to mark the ballot paper under subsection (1) unless the voter has voluntarily requested the assistance.

- (6) A person commits an offence of illegal practice who—
- (a) pretends to have a disability for the purposes of subsection (1) when he or she does not;
 - (b) contravenes subsection (5); or
 - (c) betrays the trust of the voter with a disability under this section.

(7) Any person who commits any offence under this section is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

143. Person to vote once in election

(1) Subject to the Constitution, no person shall vote or attempt to vote more than once in any election.

(2) For the purpose of ensuring that no voter casts a vote more than once, a presiding officer or a polling assistant shall, before issuing a ballot paper, inspect the fingers of any voter in order to ascertain whether or not the voter has been marked with indelible ink in accordance with section 141; and the presiding officer or a polling assistant, as the case may be, shall refuse to issue a ballot paper to that voter if the presiding officer or polling assistant has reasonable grounds to believe that the voter has already voted or if the voter refuses to be inspected under this subsection.

(3) Any person who refuses to be inspected under subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

144. Returning officers to have powers of justices of the peace

During an election and while the polls are open, every returning officer and presiding officer is a keeper of the peace and has all the powers of a justice of the peace to maintain law and order at the polling station, and he or she may—

- (a) require the assistance of a member of the Uganda Police Force or other persons present to aid him or her in maintaining peace and good order at the polling station;
- (b) warn or arrest or cause, by verbal order, to be arrested, and place or cause to be placed in the custody of any police officer or other person authorised by law, any person disturbing the peace and good order at the polling station; or
- (c) cause any arrested person to be imprisoned under an order signed by him or her until not later than an hour after the closure of the poll.

145. Votes to be counted at each polling station

(1) Votes cast at every polling station shall be counted at the polling station immediately after the presiding officer declares the polling closed, and the votes cast in favour of each candidate shall be recorded separately in accordance with this Part.

(2) Subject to section 146, no votes shall stay uncounted overnight and, where required, the presiding officer shall provide lanterns or any other source of adequate light for the purposes of counting votes.

(3) A candidate may be present in person or through his or her representative or polling agents at each polling station, and at the place where the returning officer tallies the number of votes for each candidate or conducts a recount, for the purposes of safeguarding the interests of the candidate with regard to all stages of the counting, tallying or recounting processes.

(4) At the commencement of the counting, the presiding officer shall, in the presence and full view of all present, open the ballot box and empty its contents onto the polling table, and with the assistance of polling assistants proceed to count the votes separating the votes polled by each candidate.

146. Interruption and postponement of counting, tallying or recounting

(1) Where counting, tallying or recounting of votes is interrupted by a riot or violence or any other reasonable cause, the presiding officer or returning officer shall adjourn the counting, tallying or recounting to the next day or to any other time of the same day and shall immediately inform

- (a) in the case of the presiding officer, the returning officer; or
- (b) in the case of the returning officer, the Electoral Commission, of that fact.

(2) Where the counting, tallying or recounting of votes is adjourned to the following day under subsection (1), the time, procedure and manner of the subsequent counting, tallying or recounting shall be as on the original occasion.

(3) Where counting is adjourned under this section, the ballot boxes shall be kept in safe custody and the candidates or their agents shall be entitled to be present to keep watch on the boxes until counting resumes.

147. Declaration of winning candidate

() Each returning officer shall, immediately after the addition of all the votes for each candidate or after any recount, declare elected a candidate who has obtained the largest number of votes by completing the return in the prescribed form.

(2) Upon completing the return, every returning officer shall transmit to the Electoral Commission the following documents—

- (a) the return form;
- (b) a report of the elections within the returning officer's electoral area; and
- (c) the declaration of results forms from which the official addition of the votes was made.

148. Declaration of results forms

(1) Each presiding officer shall complete the necessary number of copies of Form EC 9 prescribed in Schedule 8 to this Act for the declaration of results, sign them and—

- (a) one copy shall be retained by the presiding officer for display at the polling station;
- (b) one copy shall be enclosed in an envelope supplied by the Electoral Commission for the purpose, sealed by the presiding officer and delivered to the nearest result collection centre prescribed by the returning officer, together with the report book, for transmission to the returning officer;
- (c) one copy shall be delivered to each of the candidates' agents or, in the absence of those agents, to any voters present claiming to represent the candidates; and
- (d) one copy shall be deposited and sealed in the ballot box.

(2) The presiding officer shall, in the presence of the candidates and the candidates' agents as may wish to be present, seal the ballot box with a seal provided for the purpose by the Electoral Commission.

(3) The sealed ballot box referred to in subsection (2) shall contain the following items—

- (a) one duly signed declaration of results form;
- (b) the ballot papers received by each candidate, tied in separate bundles;
- (c) the invalid ballot papers, tied in one bundle;
- (d) the spoilt ballot papers, tied in one bundle;
- (e) the unused ballot papers; and
- (f) the voters roll used at the polling station.

(4) The declaration of results form shall be signed by the presiding officer and the candidates or their agents present who wish to do so, and the presiding officer immediately announce the results of the voting at that polling station before communicating them to the returning officer.

149. Declaration of results and reports by Electoral Commission

(1) The Electoral Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the election, ascertain, declare and, in writing under its seal, publish in the Gazette the results of the election for each constituency.

(2) The Electoral Commission shall, as soon as practicable after each general election, produce a detailed report on the conduct of the election.

(3) For the purposes of a report under subsection (2), every candidate at an election and every official agent of any candidate has the right to send to the Electoral Commission a statement in writing containing any complaint that he or she may wish to make with respect to the conduct of the election or of any election officer and any suggestions with respect to changes or improvements in the law that he or she may consider desirable.

*Election petitions150. Petition against declared elected candidate

(1) An aggrieved candidate for chairperson may petition the High Court for an order that a candidate declared elected as chairperson of a local government council was not validly elected.

(2) A person qualified to petition under subsection (3) who is aggrieved by a declaration of the results of a councillor may petition the chief magistrate's court having jurisdiction in the constituency.

(3) An election petition may be filed by any of the following persons—

- (a) a candidate who loses an election; or
- (b) a registered voter in the constituency concerned supported by the signatures of not less than five hundred voters registered in the constituency.

(4) An election petition shall be filed within fourteen days after the day on which the results of the election have been notified by the Electoral Commission in the Gazette.

151. Grounds for setting aside election

The election of a candidate as a chairperson or a member of a council shall only be set aside on any of the following grounds if proved to the satisfaction of the court that—

- (a) there was failure to conduct the election in accordance with the provisions of this Part and that the non-compliance and failure affected the result of the election in a substantial manner;
- (b) a person other than the one elected purportedly won the election;
- (c) an illegal practice or any other offence under this Act was committed in connection with the election by the candidate personally or with his or her knowledge and consent or approval; or
- (d) the candidate was, at the time of his or her election, not qualified or was disqualified from election.

152. Criminal offence disclosed in hearing of petition

(1) Nothing in this section confers on the court, when hearing an election petition, power to convict a person for a criminal offence.

(2) Where it appears to the court, on hearing an election petition, that the facts before it disclose that a criminal offence may have been committed, the court shall make a report on the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions for appropriate action to be taken.

(3) Where an election is set aside, a fresh election shall be held as if it were a by-election in accordance with section 188.

153. Notice of petition to be served on respondent

Notice in writing of the presentation of a petition accompanied by a copy of the petition shall, within seven days after the filing of the petition, be served by the petitioner on the respondent or respondents, as the case may be.

154. Trial of election petition

(1) An election petition, filed under section 150, shall be tried in open court.

(2) The High Court or chief magistrate shall proceed to hear and determine the matter within three months after the day on which the petition was filed and may, for that purpose, suspend any other matter pending before court.

- (3) After due inquiry, the court hearing an election petition may—
- (a) dismiss the petition;
 - (b) declare a candidate other than the candidate declared elected earlier to have been validly elected; or
 - (c) set aside the election and order a new election.

(4) The court, before coming to a decision under subsection (3), may where applicable order a recount of the votes cast.

(5) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the court shall determine whether the respondent was duly elected or whether any, and if so which, person other than the respondent was or is entitled to be declared duly elected, and if the court determines that—

- (a) the respondent was duly elected, the election shall be and remain valid as if no petition had been presented against the respondent's election;
- (b) the respondent was not duly elected but that some other person was or is entitled to be declared duly elected—
 - (i) the respondent shall be ordered to vacate his or her seat; and
 - (ii) the court shall notify the Electoral Commission and the speaker or chairperson of the relevant council of its determination, and the Electoral Commission shall thereupon, by notice in the Gazette, declare that other person duly elected with effect from the day of the determination by the court;
- (c) the respondent was not duly elected and that no other person was or is entitled to be declared duly elected—
 - (i) the seat of the respondent shall be declared vacant; and
 - (ii) the court shall immediately notify the Electoral Commission and the speaker or chairperson of the relevant council of its determination, and the Electoral Commission shall arrange a fresh election in the relevant constituency in accordance with section 132.

155. Witness in election petition

(1) In the hearing of a petition, the powers of the court and the rules of procedure shall be those, which apply to a civil action in a court of law.

(2) A witness who, in the course of the hearing of an election petition, wilfully makes a statement of fact material to the proceedings which he or she knows to be false or does not believe to be true, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine of ten currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

156. Withdrawal of election petition

(1) An election petition shall not be withdrawn without the leave of the court and after such notice has been given as the court may direct.

(2) On the hearing of the application for withdrawal, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition refers may apply to the court to be substituted as a petitioner for the petitioner who desires to withdraw.

(3) The court may substitute as a petitioner any applicant under subsection (2) and may further, if the proposed withdrawal has been, in the opinion of the court, induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, by order, direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner remain as security for any costs that may become payable by the substituted petitioner and that the original petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs.

(4) If a petition is withdrawn the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

157. Appeals

(1) Any person aggrieved by the determination of a lower court on hearing an election petition may appeal to the High Court or Court of Appeal against the verdict.

(2) The High Court or Court of Appeal in case of a subsequent appeal shall proceed to hear and determine an appeal under this section within three months after the day on which the petition was filed and may, for that purpose, suspend any other matter pending before it.

(3) The decision of the Court of Appeal in an appeal under this section shall be final.

158. Petition to lapse on death of petitioner

An election petition shall lapse at the death of a sole petitioner.

Illegal practices and offences

159. Offence of bribery

(1) Any person who, with intent either before or during an election, either directly or indirectly influences another person to vote or to refrain from voting for any candidate, or gives, provides or causes to be given or provided any money, gift or other consideration to another person, to influence that person's voting, commits an illegal practice of the offence of bribery.

(2) Any person receiving any money, gift or consideration under subsection (1) commits the offence of illegal practice under that subsection.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of the provision of refreshments or food—

- (a) offered by a candidate or a candidate's agent at a candidate's campaign planning and organisation meeting;
- (b) offered by any person other than a candidate or a candidate's agent at a candidate's campaign planning and organisation meeting.

(4) A candidate or candidate's agent who, by himself or herself or any other person, directly or indirectly, before the close of polls on polling day offers, procures or provides or promises to procure or provide alcoholic beverages to any person commits an offence of illegal practice.

(5) Any person who commits any offence stipulated in this section is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

160. Offence of illegal practice

(1) A person who votes or induces or procures any person to vote at an election, knowing that he or she or that person is prohibited by law from voting at that election, commits the offence of illegal practice.

(2) A person who, before or during an election, publishes a false statement of the illness, death or withdrawal of a candidate at the election for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of another candidate, knowing that statement to be false or not knowing or believing on reasonable grounds the statement to be true, commits the offence of illegal practice.

(3) A person who, at an election, or on a nomination day, wilfully obstructs a voter, or an aspiring candidate either at the polling station or nomination centre or on his or her way to or from the polling station or nomination centre, commits the offence of illegal practice.

(4) Any person who commits the offence of illegal practice under this section is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

161. Misconduct at candidates meetings

(1) Any person who, at any candidates meeting under this Act, acts in a disorderly manner for the purpose of preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is held, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both.

(2) The chairperson of a meeting to which this section applies may direct any person who, in the opinion of the chairperson, is preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is being held, to leave the place; and if the person fails or refuses to leave, the chairperson may cause that person to be removed from the place using such force as may be reasonably necessary.

(3) Any person who has, in accordance with subsection (2), left or who has been removed from a place in which a meeting to which this section applies is taking place shall not, without the permission of the chairperson of the meeting, return to that place while the meeting is still in progress; and any person who contravenes this subsection commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both.

162. Failure by presiding officer to furnish election returns

A presiding officer who fails, without reasonable cause, to furnish the returns of the election to the returning officer within the time stipulated by law commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

163. Offences relating to voting

- (1) Any person who—
 - (a) forges or alters any document or delivers to the returning officer any document, knowing it to be forged;
 - (b) fraudulently defaces or destroys any document relating to the holding of an election under this Act;
 - (c) forges, counterfeits or destroys any ballot paper or the official mark on any ballot paper;
 - (d) without authority, supplies any ballot papers to any person;
 - (e) without authority, sells or offers for sale, any document relating to the holding of an election under this Act to any person, or purchases or offers to purchase any such document from any person;
 - (f) not being a person entitled under this Act to be in possession of a document relating to the holding of an election, has that document in his or her possession;

- (2) During the hours when a polling station is open on a polling day, no person shall, within two hundred metres of any polling station, seek to influence in whatever manner any person to vote for any candidate or to ascertain for which candidate any voter intends to vote or has voted.
- (3) During the hours when a polling station is open on a polling day, no person shall, within four hundred metres of any polling station, sell any intoxicating liquor.
- (4) Any person who contravenes subsection (1), (2) or (3) commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

168. Defacement of notices and posters

(1) Any person who, without lawful excuse, destroys, mutilates, defaces or removes any notice which is exhibited under the authority of this Act, or any document which is made available for inspection under this Act, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both.

(2) Any person who maliciously defaces or removes or tears any election poster of any nominated candidate commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

(3) A court convicting a person of an offence under subsection (1) shall as soon as practicable after the conviction, report the conviction in writing to the Electoral Commission.

169. Obstruction of election officers

Any person who wilfully obstructs or interferes with an election officer in the execution of the officer's duty commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

170. General penalty for offences

Where no penalty is expressly provided under this Act for an offence other than an illegal practice, the offender is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

171. Director of Public Prosecutions' consent to prosecute

(1) A person shall not be prosecuted for an offence under this Act without the consent, in writing, of the Director of Public Prosecutions or his or her authorised officer.

- (2) Subsection (1) shall not prevent a person from being—
 - (a) charged with an offence under this Act;

- (b) arrested with or without warrant in respect of an offence under this Act; or
 - (c) remanded on bail or in custody in respect of any offence under this Act,
- without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(3) In a prosecution for an offence under this Act in relation to a ballot box or paper or any other document relating to elections, the property in the ballot box, ballot paper or other documents as well as the property in the counterfoil of any ballot papers, shall be vested in the Electoral Commission.

Elections at administrative lower councils

172. Display of voters roll for administrative unit elections

For the purposes of the village, parish and ward elections, the following provisions shall have effect notwithstanding the Electoral Commission Act

- (a) the period of display of the voters roll under section 26(1) of the Electoral Commission Act, shall be at least two days; and
- (b) objections to the voters roll shall be decided by Electoral Commission in accordance with section 185 of this Act.

173. Instructions for voting

When the electorate of a county, parish or village council is assembled for purposes of conducting an election, the presiding officer shall address the voters on the procedures of voting.

174. Nomination, approval and removal of executive committee members

(1) The members of the executive committee at the village and parish level shall be nominated by the chairperson from members of the council present and then be presented to their respective council for approval one by one by a show of hands.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the approval shall be done on the day of the election of the chairperson.

175. Nomination of candidates

(1) The presiding officer shall call for nominations for the office of chairperson at village and parish to be filled.

(2) The nomination of candidates may be made for elections at the village, parish or ward, or county council by a political organisation or political party sponsoring a candidate or by a candidate standing for election as an independent candidate without being sponsored by a political organisation or political party.

(3) The Electoral Commission shall publish in the Gazette and the local media a nomination day and the time when candidates who wish to stand for election as chairperson of a village, parish or ward, or county council shall be nominated.

(4) The Electoral Commission shall designate a period of at least one day after nomination, for candidates nominated under subsection (3) to campaign for the election.

(5) No voter may second more than one candidate for the same office.

(6) No candidate shall be nominated for an office of a local council unless he or she ordinarily resides in the area and is of the age of eighteen or above.

(7) Where a candidate is nominated in the manner provided for under this Part and the presiding officer is satisfied that all the provisions of this Part have been complied with, the presiding officer shall declare the candidate as nominated.

(8) A candidate may, at any time before the commencement of an election, withdraw his or her candidature by informing the electorate in session and the presiding officer.

(9) Where some reasonable time elapses after the nomination of a candidate for any office and there is only one candidate nominated for the office, the presiding officer shall declare the candidate elected in that office unopposed.

176. Electoral Commission to appoint election day

The Electoral Commission shall, by notice in the Gazette and the local media, appoint a day for elections at the village, parish or ward.

177. Quorum at parish council elections

(1) The quorum for any meeting of a parish council for elections shall be one-third of all the members of the council.

(2) Quorum shall not be taken to be realised under subsection (1) unless, in the case of a parish, the members of the executive committees of at least half of the villages in the parish are present.

178. Elected person to have clear majority

(1) The returning officer shall declare a candidate a winner where that candidate has obtained the largest number of votes cast or has been elected unopposed.

(2) Where there is a tie in the first position, then those tying in the first position shall be put to vote.

179. Presiding officer to keep order

(1) The presiding officer or any person acting in his or her place shall keep order at the polling station.

(2) If any person misconducts himself or herself at a polling station, or fails to obey the lawful orders of the presiding officer, that person may by order of the presiding officer, be removed from the polling station immediately by any person authorised by the presiding officer or by the returning officer, and the person removed shall not, unless permitted by the presiding officer again, be allowed to enter the polling station.

180. Action where elections are interrupted

(1) Where the proceedings at any polling station are interrupted or obstructed by riot, violence or any other unforeseen impediment, the presiding officer shall adjourn the elections to a later time of the same day or till the following day and shall notify the returning officer.

(2) Where the poll is adjourned at any polling station, the hours of polling on the day to which it is adjourned shall be the same as on the original day.

181. Enumerators

(1) The presiding officer in charge of elections shall appoint as many persons outside the persons entitled to vote as he or she shall consider necessary to assist in counting votes, and those persons shall be known as enumerators.

(2) After the counting of votes is completed at polling stations the presiding officer shall declare the winning candidate, but the presiding officer may, where he or she receives a complaint from any person entitled to vote at the election and he or she is satisfied that the complaint is not frivolous, order a recount of the votes before making the declaration.

182. Presiding officer to fill forms

After the results are declared, the presiding officer shall fill in Forms EC 9, EC 10 and EC 11 set out in Schedule 8 to this Act and submit the forms to the relevant offices, as indicated on the forms, within two days.

183. Election petition for village and parish

An election petition relating to elections for a village or parish shall be filed in the magistrate grade I court having jurisdiction in that constituency.

184. Non-citizens not to be members of local councils

For the avoidance of doubt, a person shall not be a member of a local council unless that person is a citizen of Uganda.

185. Electoral Commission to settle disputes

For the avoidance of doubt, the powers of the Electoral Commission to settle disputes in relation to elections under the Electoral Commission Act shall apply to elections at local councils.

*General provisions for elections186. Transition of executive committee

An incoming executive committee shall, before taking office, ensure that there is a formal handing over from the outgoing executive committee within one week from the date of the expiry of the term of office of the outgoing executive committee.

187. Term of office of councils and chairperson

The chairperson, local government councils and administrative councils shall be elected every five years.

188. By-elections

(1) Where the office of a chairperson becomes vacant, the Chief Administrative Officer shall within twenty-one days notify the Electoral Commission; and the Electoral Commission shall organise a by-election six months from the occurrence of the vacancy.

(2) Any Chief Administrative Officer who fails to report to the Electoral Commission within one month from the date the office fell vacant, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or both.

(3) A person elected chairperson under subsection (1) shall hold office for the period covering the unexpired term of the council.

(4) Where the seat of a councillor becomes vacant under regulation 3 of Schedule 2 to this Act, the Chief Administrative Officer shall notify the Electoral Commission in writing within twenty-one days after the vacancy occurred and the Commission shall organise a by-election within six months after the occurrence of the vacancy.

(5) Where the seat of a chairperson of a subcounty council, town council, municipal division, municipal council or city division becomes vacant, the Chief Administrative Officer shall notify the district registrar within twenty-one days after the occurrence of the vacancy and the Electoral Commission shall organise a by-election within six months after the occurrence of the vacancy.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the parish chief shall report to the subcounty chief any vacancy occurring in a parish or village council within ten days after the occurrence of the vacancy for onward transmission to the district registrar and the Electoral Commission shall organise a by-election within six months after the occurrence of the vacancy to fill the vacancy.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in this section, a by-election shall not be held where the term of the council to which the vacancy relates has less than six months to expire.

(8) A by-election for local government councils shall not be held where a vacancy occurs within six months to the general elections of local councils.

189. Application of laws relating to presidential and parliamentary elections

For any issue not provided for under this Part, the Presidential Elections Act and the Parliamentary Elections Act in force shall apply to the elections of local councils with such modifications as may be deemed necessary by the Electoral Commission.

PART XI—MISCELLANEOUS

190. Protection against court action

No act, matter or thing done or omitted to be done by—

- (a) any member of a local government or administrative council or a committee of a council;
- (b) any member of staff or other person in the service of a council; or
- (c) any person acting under the directions of a council, shall, if that act, matter or thing was done or omitted in good faith in the execution of a duty or under direction, render that member or person personally liable to any civil action claim or demand.

191. Persons not exempted to be accountable

A person who is not exempted from liability under section 190 and who directs or concurs in the use of public funds contrary to existing legal rules or instructions shall be accountable for any loss arising from that use and shall be required to make good the loss even if that person has ceased to hold office.

192. Minister to delegate

Where, under this Act, the Minister is empowered to exercise any powers or perform any duties, the Minister may delegate that power or duty to any person by name, or office, to exercise that power or perform the duty on his or her behalf, subject to any conditions, exceptions and qualifications as the Minister may prescribe.

193. Regulations

(1) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, make regulations for better carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) The regulations made by the Minister under this section, prescribing the rates of local service tax in respect of commercial farmers who produce on a large scale, shall be made with the approval of Parliament.

(3) Notwithstanding the Interpretation Act, the Minister may, while exercising his or her powers under subsection (1), by statutory instrument, prescribe such fines as may be appropriate in the circumstances.

194. Power to amend Schedules

(1) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, with the approval of Cabinet, amend Schedule 1 to this Act.

(2) The Minister may, by statutory instrument, with the approval of Cabinet, amend Schedules 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 to this Act, and the Minister shall not have power to delegate this function.

(3) The Minister shall, as soon as is practicable after the publication of a statutory instrument under subsection (2), cause the instrument to be laid before Parliament, and Parliament may amend or revoke the statutory instrument; and if no amendment or revocation is effected within two weeks of its being laid before Parliament, it shall be deemed to have been approved.

195. Local government police and prisons

Local government police and prisons existing at the enactment of this Act shall continue in existence until a new law covering them is enacted.

196. Equitable sharing of property

At the creation of a new local government unit, the Minister shall ensure the equitable sharing of property between the original and new local governments.

Local Government Councils Regulations

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Title

These Regulations may be cited as the Local Government Councils Regulations.

PART II—ELECTED COUNCILLORS TAKING OFFICE

2. Oath and acceptance of office by councillor

(1) A person elected a local government councillor shall, before taking office of a councillor, and before the first meeting of a local government council—

- (a) take an oath as prescribed in Schedule 4 to this Act administered by the Chief Administrative Officer or the Town Clerk, as the case may be; and
- (b) make a written declaration addressed to the Chief Administrative Officer or the Town Clerk accepting the office of councillor.

(2) In the case of other local councils an oral acceptance recorded in the minutes of the first meeting of that council shall suffice.

3. Vacation of seat on local government council

The seat of a member of a local government council shall fall vacant if—

- (a) the holder of the office dies or resigns in writing addressed—
 - (i) in the case of a district, to the speaker;
 - (ii) in the case of other local councils, to the chairperson;
- (b) the council is dissolved;
- (c) that person leaves a political party for which he or she stood as a candidate for election to the council to join another party or to remain in the council as an independent member;
- (d) without reasonable cause or the permission of the chairperson, a member fails to attend four consecutive ordinary meetings of the council;
- (e) the holder is found guilty of violation of the Leadership Code and punishment imposed includes the vacation of office of councillor;

- (f) the holder accepts appointment to a public office in a local council that employs him or her;
- (g) a member is under sentence of death or imprisonment exceeding six months, imposed on him or her by a court of law without the option of a fine;
- (h) a member has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude within the preceding six years;
- (i) a member is recalled by the electorate of his or her constituency;
- (j) circumstances arise which disqualify a member from membership under any other law; or
- (k) a member ceases to be a resident in the constituency which he or she represents on that council.

4. Pecuniary interest of members

(1) If any member of the district, subcounty or urban council or of any committee, board or commission of a council—

- (a) has any pecuniary interest in a proposed contract or any other matter; and
- (b) is present at any meeting of that council, board, commission or committee at which that contract or other matter is the subject of consideration, he or she shall at that meeting disclose that interest and shall not take part in any consideration or discussion or vote on any question relating to that contract or that matter, and that person shall withdraw from that meeting.

(2) This regulation shall not apply to a pecuniary interest which a member may have as a rate payer or taxpayer.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with subregulation (1) of this regulation commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a term not less than six months and not more than three years without an option of a fine unless that person establishes to the satisfaction of the court that he or she did not know—

- (a) that he or she had pecuniary interest in the contract, proposed contract or other matter; and
- (b) that the contract, proposed contract or other matter was the subject of consideration at any meeting.

(4) A prosecution for an offence under this section shall not be commenced except with the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

5. Removal of chairperson of lower local government council

The chairperson may be removed from office by the council as prescribed in section 14(21) of the Act.

6. Vacation of office of member of executive committee

The office of a member of the executive committee shall fall vacant if—

- (a) the appointment of a member is revoked by the chairperson;
- (b) a member
 - (i) resigns from office;
 - (ii) becomes disqualified to be a member of the council; or
 - (iii) dies;
- (c) the council passes a vote of censure of a member; or
- (d) a new chairperson assumes office.

7. Revocation of mandate of councillor

(1) Subject to this regulation, the mandate of an elected member of a local council shall be revoked if the member is recalled by the electorate on any of the following grounds—

- (a) failing to declare his or her assets within three months after assuming office; or
- (b) neglecting his or her duties as councillor or for having committed acts incompatible with his or her position as a member of the council.

(2) A local government councillor shall lose his or her seat as councillor if one-third of the registered electorate of his or her electoral area signs a petition and lodges it with the Electoral Commission.

(3) The Electoral Commission shall declare the seat vacant after ascertaining the authenticity of the petitioners and the validity of the petition.

8. Duties of councillor

- (1) A councillor shall—
 - (a) maintain close contact with the electoral area, and consult the people on issues to be discussed in the council, where necessary;
 - (b) present views, opinions and proposals to the council;
 - (c) attend sessions of the local council and meetings of committees or subcommittees of which he or she is a member;
 - (d) appoint at least a day in a given period for meeting the people in his or her electoral area;
 - (e) report to the electorate the general decisions of the council and the actions it has taken to solve problems raised by the residents in the electoral area;
 - (f) bring to bear on any discussion in the council the benefit of his or her skill, profession, experience or specialised knowledge; and
 - (g) take part in communal and development activities in his or her electoral area and the district as a whole.

(2) A member of a local government council shall, in the discharge of his or her duties, have due regard to the national and district interests and the interests of the people in the electoral area.

PART III—MEETINGS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT COUNCILS

9. Meetings of local government council

(1) A local government council shall meet for the discharge of its functions at least once in two months, at a time and place that the speaker, or chairperson in the case of a council without a speaker, may determine.

(2) A notice calling a meeting, together with the agenda for that meeting, shall be circulated to each member of the council at least seven clear days before the date of the meeting, and a written notice may be supplemented by a public announcement over the radio or placed at a place of common interest or by any other means.

(3) The meetings of a council shall be open to the public, but where in the opinion of the speaker or presiding chairperson or by resolution of the council, the deliberations at a particular meeting are of a confidential nature, the council may meet in camera.

(4) The speaker or presiding chairperson may require any member of the public behaving in a disorderly manner to withdraw from the meeting, and may order security personnel to eject that person if he or she refuses to withdraw.

(5) Fifty percent of the members of the council shall form quorum at any of its meetings.

(6) The questions proposed at a meeting of a council shall be determined by general consensus, but where a consensus cannot be reached, questions shall be determined by a simple majority of the members present and voting.

(7) Where the question proposed is a vote of no confidence or is the removal of a person from office, or any other matter when the council so decides, voting shall be by secret ballot.

(8) Subject to this regulation, a council may make byelaws regulating the procedure for meetings of the council and its working committees.

10. Minutes of council meetings

(1) The records of every meeting of a local government council shall be kept in English.

(2) Any person other than a member of that council requiring a copy of the minutes may receive a copy on payment of a fee prescribed by the council.

11. Extension of term of council

(1) The Minister may, with the prior approval of the Cabinet, extend the term of office of a local government council or a number of local government councils from four years for a further period not exceeding six months where—

- (a) Uganda is in a state of war;
- (b) a state of emergency has been declared under the Constitution; or
- (c) any district or part of a district has been declared a disturbed area under the Constitution.

(2) The extension referred to in subregulation (1) may be renewed by resolution of Parliament.

12. Extension of term of administrative unit councils

The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette and in a newspaper of national circulation or other media, with the prior approval of the Cabinet, extend, renew, reinstate or validate the term of office of administrative unit councils from five years for a further period not exceeding one hundred eighty days at a time, notwithstanding that the term may have expired, where—

- (a) Uganda is in a state of war;
- (b) a state of emergency has been declared under the Constitution;
- (c) any district or part of a district has been declared a disturbed area under the Constitution; or
- (d) it has become extremely difficult or impossible to conduct elections for the administrative unit councils.

13. Freedom of speech in proceedings

There shall be freedom of speech, debate and proceedings in every local government council, and that freedom shall not be impeached or questioned in any court, tribunal or place out of that council.

14. Immunity from court action

(1) Subject to this Act, no civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted against a member of a local government council in any court or tribunal by reason of anything said in the local council by petition, motion or otherwise.

(2) Where in the opinion of the speaker or presiding chairperson a statement made by a member is prima facie defamatory of any person, the speaker or presiding chairperson shall refer the matter for inquiry to a committee appointed by the council for that purpose which shall report its findings to the council not later than fourteen days from the date of its appointment.

(3) Where the committee reports to the local council that the statement made by the member is defamatory of any person, the member who made the statement shall, within seven days from the receipt of communication of the speaker or chairperson render an apology through the local council on terms approved by the council; and the apology shall be communicated to the person who has been defamed.

(4) Where a member refuses to render an apology pursuant to subregulation (3), the speaker shall suspend that member for two consecutive meetings of the local council.

(5) A member of the council suspended under subregulation (4) shall lose all privileges, immunities and allowances for the period of suspension; and the privileges and immunities shall be restored if, at any time before the end of the period specified in subregulation (4), he or she renders the apology required.

15. Unqualified persons sitting or voting in council

Any person who sits or votes in a local council after his or her seat has become vacant or he or she has become disqualified from sitting or voting in the local council, knowing or having reasonable grounds for knowing that he or she is disqualified, or that the seat has become vacant, as the case may be, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

PART IV—PROCEDURE FOR LEGISLATION

16. Members may introduce bills for ordinances

(1) Every member of the district council or city council has a right to introduce a bill for an ordinance in the council.

(2) A councillor introducing a bill for an ordinance shall be afforded reasonable assistance by the council's department whose area of operation is affected by the bill.

(3) A bill for an ordinance introduced by a member shall, before its publication, first be introduced by a motion to which the proposed bill is attached, and if the motion is carried then the bill shall be published.

17. Method of publication of bill

(1) The council shall, not later than fourteen days before a bill is to be debated by the council, publish the draft

- (a) by fixing a copy of the bill in a conspicuous place on or near the outer door of the office of the district council during office hours;
- (b) by including the bill as a supplement to an official local publication, if any;
- (c) by availing copies of the bill to the public; or
- (d) in any other manner as is customary in the area.

(2) There shall be attached to the bill for publication a short memorandum signed by the person introducing the bill, setting out the policy matter of the bill and how the bill seeks to implement that policy.

18. Bill to have title

(1) Each bill shall be identified by a title placed at the beginning of the bill.

(2) The title of the bill shall include the subject matter of the ordinance in general terms.

19. Ordaining clause

(1) Each bill shall have an ordaining clause placed immediately below the title of the bill.

(2) The ordaining clause shall read as follows—

“BE IT ORDAINED by the council of the district of (name of district) as follows:”.

20. Distribution of copies of bill to members

On publication of the bill, the clerk shall distribute copies to the members ensuring that each councillor gets a copy to enable the members to study the bill and consult on it in their constituencies.

21. Debating bill

(1) Debating of the bill shall take place at least fourteen days after its publication.

(2) In case of a public emergency, subregulation (1) of this regulation may be waived by a resolution of the council.

(3) At the beginning of the debate, the speaker shall call out the name of the member introducing the bill to introduce it.

(4) The clerk shall then read the title of the bill after which the member called upon shall give the introductory speech giving reasons for introducing the bill.

(5) A full debate shall then follow on the basis of the memorandum and the introductory speech.

(6) Amendments to the bill may be moved by members, in writing, at any time before the closure of the debate.

(7) At the close of the debate the speaker shall put the question in respect of each clause of the bill as published or as is amended by any member.

(8) The bill shall be passed if all the clauses are passed by the members as published or as amended by the council.

22. Signing bill into ordinance and publication

(1) On the return of the bill from the Attorney General with or without amendments, the chairperson shall place his or her signature on five copies of the bill which copies shall be kept as follows—

- (a) the chairperson, one copy;
- (b) the speaker, one copy;
- (c) the Minister, one copy; and
- (d) the Attorney General, two copies one of which shall be for publication in the Gazette.

(2) On publication of the ordinance the date of signature and the date of commencement shall be indicated, and the ordinance shall be given a number in order of publication of the ordinances.

(3) An ordinance shall be published in the Gazette and in the district in the same manner as the bill is published in the district.

23. Procedure for making byelaws

(1) Every councillor has a right to introduce a byelaw in his or her council.

(2) A councillor wishing to introduce a byelaw shall forward the byelaw to the chairperson who shall—

- (a) distribute or cause to be distributed copies to members of the council at least fourteen days before the byelaw is to be debated;
- (b) publish or cause to be published a notice of the intention of making the byelaw and invite representation in writing by any person who objects to the making of the byelaw within three weeks from the date of the notice; and
- (c) publish or cause to be published in a manner specified in subregulation (6), the relevant byelaw at the same period as the notice under paragraph (b).

(3) Subregulation 20(2), (4), (5), (6) and (8) shall apply to a meeting making a byelaw.

(4) During a debate on a byelaw any representation made under subregulation (2) shall be circulated to members and shall be taken into consideration.

(5) After the passing of a byelaw and after the fulfilment of the provisions of section 41 of the Act, the byelaw shall be signed by the chairperson and published in the manner specified under subregulation (6).

(6) The provisions of regulation 16 relating to the method of publication of a bill shall apply to the publication of a byelaw under this regulation.

PART V—COMMITTEES

24. Meetings of committees

(1) Committees shall meet for the discharge of their functions at a time and place that the chairperson of the committee may decide.

(2) Regulation 9 regarding meetings of the local government council shall apply to meetings of the committees.

25. Working committees

The local government council may establish and regulate working committees as it deems fit, but the number of members on each committee, including the chairperson, shall not be more than nine.

26. Joint committees

Where the local council decides to concur with any other local government council in appointing a joint committee, the election of members and the regulation of the conduct of the joint committee shall be as agreed between the two local government councils.

PART VI—MISCELLANEOUS

27. Mode of service of summons, etc.

(1) Any summons, notice or other document required or authorised to be served on a district, urban or subcounty council shall be served by delivering it to, or by sending it by registered post addressed to, the Town Clerk, Chief Administrative Officer or chief of the subcounty of the council.

(2) The court may, with regard to any particular suit or document, order service on the district, urban or subcounty council to be effected otherwise; and in that case service shall be effected in accordance with the terms of that order.

28. Legal representation of council

A district, urban or subcounty council which may wish to be represented by legal counsel in any civil cause or matter in which the local government is a party shall do so in consultation with the Attorney General.

29. Service of notice by council

(1) Subject to this regulation, any notice, order or other document required or authorised by this or any law to be served by or on behalf of a council on any person shall be deemed to have been duly served—

- (a) where the person to be served is a company, if the document is addressed to the secretary of the company at its registered office or at its principal office or place of business, and it is either—
 - (i) sent by post; or
 - (ii) delivered to that office or the principal office or place of business of the company;
- (b) where the person to be served is a partnership, if the document is addressed to the partnership at its principal place of business, identifying it by name or the style under which its business is carried on, and is either—
 - (i) sent by post; or
 - (ii) delivered to that office or the principal office or place of business;
- (c) where the person to be served is a public body, a corporation, a council, society or other body, if the document is addressed to the president, secretary, treasurer or other principal officer of that body, as the case may be, at its principal office and is either—
 - (i) sent by post; or
 - (ii) delivered to that office; and
- (d) in any other case, if the document is addressed to the person to be served and is either sent to him or her by post or delivered to his or her residence or place of business.

(2) Any document which is required or authorised to be served on the owner or occupier of any premises may be addressed to “the owner” or “the occupier”, as the case may be, of those premises, naming them, without further name or description, and shall be deemed to have been duly served—

- (a) if the document is sent or delivered in accordance with subregulation (1)(d); or

- (b) if the document or a copy of it is affixed to some conspicuous part of the premises.

(3) Where a document is served on a partnership in accordance with this regulation, the document shall be deemed to have been duly served on each partner.

(4) For the purpose of enabling any document to be served on the owner of any premises, the council may require the occupier of the premises to state the name and address of the owner.

30. Authentication and execution of documents

(1) Subject to these Regulations, every order, or other document requiring authentication by a local council shall be deemed to be sufficiently authenticated without the seal of the local council if it is signed by the chairperson, the Chief Administrative Officer, the Town Clerk or by a member of the staff of the local council duly authorised in that behalf by a resolution of the council.

(2) Every contract and any instrument and document which a local council is lawfully empowered to execute shall be deemed to be duly executed by or on behalf of the local council if it is signed by the chairperson, the Chief Administrative Officer, the Town Clerk and by any other member of staff of the local council duly authorised in that behalf by resolution of the council.

31. Publication

Any document purporting to be a document duly authenticated or executed on behalf of the council shall, unless the publication of any order, notice or other document is required by these Regulations, be deemed to have been duly made—

- (a) if it is published in the Gazette; or
- (b) if it is fixed for a reasonable period in some conspicuous place of, on or near the outer door of the office of the local council during office hours or is made known in such other manner as is customary in the area of the local council.

32. Meetings of lower local councils

(1) A lower local council shall meet for the discharge of its functions under this Act, at least once in two months, at such time and place as the chairperson may determine; and, in addition, the chairperson shall convene a meeting—

- (a) upon the written request of one-third of the members of that local council; or
- (b) whenever the chairperson considers it necessary to do so.

(2) The provisions of regulation 9(3), (4), (5), (6), (7) and (8) shall apply to the lower local councils provided that in subregulation (4) of that regulation the title “speaker” shall be substituted for “chairperson”.

33. Requirements for declaring urban area

(1) Except for those areas which are already gazetted, before declaring an area to be a town, municipality or city, the following requirements should generally exist

PART III—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO LOCAL GOVERNMENT HOTEL TAX AND LOCAL SERVICE TAX

DIVISION I—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO LOCAL GOVERNMENT HOTEL TAX

8. Local government hotel tax

(1) The local government hotel tax shall be levied on hotel and lodge accommodation per room per night and the tax shall be paid by the room occupants.

(2) The tax shall be collected by the management of the hotel, which shall remit the tax to the relevant local council on a monthly basis.

(3) In these Regulations, a hotel is a house intended for accommodating travellers or visitors for payment.

9. Enforcement

(1) Where the local government hotel tax is collected and any part of it remains unremitted to the respective local government at the end of the financial year, the local government shall notify the hotel liable, requiring it to pay the outstanding tax together with a surcharge of forty percent, within two months after notification.

(2) A district or urban local council may sue a hotel for failure to collect the tax or failure to remit the tax collected.

DIVISION II—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO LOCAL SERVICE TAX

10. Local service tax

(1) Every district or urban local council shall levy an annual tax to be known as local service tax on every person in gainful employment, practising professionals, business persons and commercial farmers.

(2) The salaried employees shall pay the tax in four equal instalments during the financial year.

- (3) The rest of the taxpayers shall pay the tax once in full.
- (4) The payment of the tax shall be completed within the first four months of the financial year for which it was assessed.
- (5) The tax on salaried employees shall be collected by the employer and remitted to the respective local governments.
- (6) Local service tax shall be payable to the district, municipality or town council where the person liable to pay the tax resides.
- (7) A person liable to pay local service tax shall register with the nearest tax office of the local government in the area where he or she resides.
- (8) Local service tax shall be paid on the basis of an assessment and each local service tax payer shall keep evidence of his or her assessment.
- (9) The businessmen and businesswomen shall pay the tax at the time of paying for their annual trading and operational licenses at their respective local governments.
- (10) Where a commercial farmer produces more than one agricultural produce, the assessment committee shall only assess him or her for local service tax based on the main or dominant agricultural product he or she is producing.
- (11) In these Regulations, a commercial farmer is a person producing farm produce on a large scale for the market.
- (12) For the purposes of these Regulations, “residence” means continuous residence for at least six months in a city, municipality, town, district or other local government, and continuity of residence shall be deemed not to have been broken by reason of any absence of less than five weeks.

11. Tax enumeration committee

A subcounty chief, an Assistant Town Clerk and a Town Clerk shall respectively appoint a tax enumeration committee for a subcounty, city division or municipal division and town council, composed of technical officers with a chairperson of a village or ward, where the enumeration is taking place, as an ex officio member to carry out enumeration of sources of income of persons to feed into the work of the tax assessment committee.

12. Tax assessment committee

(1) The local service tax payable under this Part by a person resident in a subcounty shall be assessed under these Regulations by a tax assessment committee appointed by the subcounty council.

(2) The local service tax payable under this Part by a person resident in the area of jurisdiction of an urban council shall be assessed by a tax assessment committee appointed by the city or municipal division council or town council, as the case may be.

13. Assessment of taxes by tax assessment committee

(1) Where a person satisfies the assessment committee or person appointed to do the assessment that he or she is unable to speak or to understand the language used by the tax assessment committee, the committee carrying out the assessment shall be assisted by an interpreter who understands the language of the person to be assessed.

(2) Where within one year after the making of an assessment by an assessment committee, the council concerned discovers in the assessment, an error or miscalculation, the council shall order the amendment of the assessment, and a fresh certificate of assessment shall accordingly be issued.

(3) Any amendment under subregulation (2) resulting in a higher tax shall not be made without affording a hearing to the taxpayer, and the taxpayer shall have the right to appeal against the amended assessment.

(4) Where an amendment under subregulation (2) results in a lower tax, a taxpayer shall be credited with the balance in his or her favour for the tax of the following year.

14. Appeal against assessment

(1) There shall be a tax assessment appeals tribunal in every subcounty or urban council which shall be constituted in the manner prescribed by the Minister by statutory instrument.

- (2) A person—
 - (a) assessed to pay local service tax for which he or she is not liable under these Regulations;
 - (b) assessed to pay a rate of local service tax higher than the standard rate of tax;
 - (c) refused exemption from the payment of local service tax; or
 - (d) whose complete exemption or partial exemption from the payment of local service tax has been revoked or varied by a tax assessment committee, may appeal to the tax assessment appeals tribunal, and the tax assessment appeals tribunal may confirm or vary the decision.

- (3) Where a chief in charge of a subcounty or Town Clerk in an urban council in which any person resides is satisfied that a person—
 - (a) has not been required to pay local service tax for which he or she is liable under these Regulations;
 - (b) has been required to pay local service tax at a lower rate than he or she should pay; or
 - (c) has been granted partial or complete exemption from the payment of local service tax unreasonably, that officer may appeal to the tribunal, and the appeals tribunal may confirm or vary the decision appealed against.

(4) Any appeal under this regulation shall be brought within thirty days after the decision of the assessment committee has been made known to the taxpayer and the subcounty chief, the Assistant Town Clerk or Town Clerk respectively of the subcounty, city division or municipal division or town council, as the case may be.

(5) A person aggrieved by the decision of the tax assessment appeals tribunal may appeal to the Minister.

15. Attendance before committee, etc.

(1) A tax assessment committee or a tax assessment appeals tribunal may require any person, other than a person who agrees in writing to pay the maximum rate of local service tax, to attend before it when his or her case is being considered; and that person or the employer of that person shall furnish the committee, officer or tribunal with the information that may be required of him or her to enable the committee, officer or tribunal to reach a proper decision.

(2) Any person who wilfully neglects or refuses to attend or when attending wilfully neglects or refuses to furnish information lawfully required of him or her commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding half a currency point or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month, or both.

16. Recovery of tax and penalty for non-payment

(1) Where the local service tax payable or any part of it remains unpaid at the end of the first four months of the financial year, there shall be a surcharge of fifty percent of the amount remaining unpaid.

(2) The provisions relating to the collection and enforcement of tax shall apply to the collection and enforcement of surcharges.

(3) Subject to this regulation, any person who without lawful excuse, the proof of which shall lie on him or her, refuses, neglects or fails to pay the tax to which he or she is liable under these Regulations, four months from the date the tax is due, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding double the amount of the tax due or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation, a taxpayer may be sued by a district or urban council for the recovery of the local service tax due.

(5) For the purposes of this regulation, local service tax due includes local service tax due and payable during the two years immediately preceding the year in which proceedings are instituted.

PART IV—RATES FOR PARK USER

17. Interpretation

(2) For purposes of paying the park user fees, a person shall fill in a bank payment advice form to be provided by the Uganda Revenue Authority or complete an online registration, assessment and payment on the Uganda Revenue Authority online platform.

(3) A person paying the park user fees using a bank payment advice form provided by the Uganda Revenue Authority under subregulation (2), shall deposit the amount assessed in the Bank indicated on the payment advice form.

(4) A person who has paid the park user fees under this regulation, shall retain the bank slip or receipt as proof of payment of the park user fees.

(5) A person shall not be issued with a public service vehicle licence issued under the Traffic and Road Safety Act unless the person has proof of payment of the park user fees.

20. Allocation of park user fees

(1) In accordance with the Public Finance Management Act, the Accountant General shall allocate the park user fees paid in respect of each taxicab, light omnibus, medium omnibus or heavy omnibus to a district, urban authority or Kampala Capital City Authority where it operates on a monthly basis.

(2) Where a taxicab, light omnibus, medium omnibus or heavy omnibus operates within more than one district, urban authority or within and outside Kampala Capital City the Accountant General shall allocate the paid park user fees amongst the districts, urban authorities or Kampala Capital City Authority as follows—

- (a) five hundred four thousand shillings (504,000/=) shall be allocated to a district, urban authority or Kampala Capital City Authority where a taxicab or light omnibus originates as indicated on the route chart;

- (b) three hundred thirty-six thousand shillings (336,000/=) shall be allocated to a district, urban authority or Kampala Capital City Authority where a taxicab or light omnibus destinates as indicated on the route chart;
- (c) allocate equally the park user fees amongst the districts, urban authority or Kampala Capital City Authority on the route chart in case of medium omnibus or heavy omnibus.

21. Display of routes

A driver of a taxicab, light omnibus, medium omnibus or heavy omnibus shall display the routes on the taxicab, light omnibus, medium omnibus or heavy omnibus specified in the route chart, in a position that is clearly visible by any person.

22. Enforcement

(1) An authorised officer may enforce these Regulations, and in the exercise of that power, he or she may impound any vehicle operating without paying the park user fee, tow and park the vehicle, at the designated parking yard.

(2) The towing and parking fees where applicable shall be paid by the driver or the owner of the impounded vehicle.

(3) A person who fails to pay a park user fee or obstructs an authorised officer in the exercise of his or her powers under subregulation (1), commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both.

PART V—OTHER REVENUE

23. Other revenue

In addition to grants from the Government, local government revenue shall consist of—

- (a) fees and fines on licences and permits in respect of any service rendered or regulatory power exercised by the local council;
- (b) interest on investments;
- (c) rents from lease of property owned by the local council;
- (d) fees and fines imposed by courts administered by the local council;

- (e) donations, contributions and endowments;
- (f) charges or profits arising from any trade, services or undertaking carried on by the local council;
- (g) parking fees;
- (h) advertisement fees;
- (i) user charges where applicable;
- (j) agency fees;
- (k) charcoal burning licences; and
- (l) any other revenue which may be prescribed by the local government and approved by the Minister.

PART VI—DISTRIBUTION OF GRANTS FROM CITY COUNCILS TO DIVISION COUNCILS

24. Grants from city or municipal council to division councils

(1) The minimum of thirty percent of the total revenue collected and remitted by all city or municipal divisions to a city or municipal council shall be distributed as grants to division councils based on a formula provided under subregulation (4).

(2) A city or municipal council shall distribute at least thirty percent of the total amount of its revenue collection to division councils in its area of jurisdiction on a monthly basis in accordance with the formula in subregulation (4).

(3) Where a city or municipal council fails to remit funds due to a division council under subregulation (2) for two consecutive months, the division council may retain the amount due to it.

(4) The amount to be given to individual divisions shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula—

Formula for distribution of grants from city or municipal councils to division councils

$$A = \frac{3B}{10} \left[\frac{W_1 x_i}{X} + \frac{W_2 y_i}{Y} + \frac{W_3 z_i}{Z} + \frac{W_4 q_i}{Q} \right]$$

Where—

- A = minimum annual amount for a division
 B = city/municipal council actual collected revenue for that period
 W_1 = weight of the parameter for child mortality
 W_2 = weight of the school-going-age population (5-12 yrs.)
 W_3 = weight of the number of inhabitants
 W_4 = weight of the land area (sq. km.)
 X = city/municipal council total number of child deaths (1-5 yrs.)
 Y = city/municipal council school-going-age population (5-12 yrs.)
 Z = city/municipal council population
 Q = city/municipal council land area (sq. km.)
 x_i = division (i) total number of child deaths (1-5 yrs.)
 division school-going-age population (5-12 yrs.)
 division population
 q_i = division land area (sq. km.)
 = division, e.g. Nakawa

Recommended weights of the parameters—

(a) child mortality	40%
(b) school-going-age population (5-12 yrs.)	25%
(c) population	20%
(d) land area (sq. km.)	15%
Total	100%

25. Distribution of grants by subcounty council to administrative councils

A subcounty shall retain sixty-five percent of the amount retained and distribute the thirty-five percent as follows—

- (a) five percent to be remitted to the county councils;
- (b) five percent to be distributed among the parishes; and
- (c) twenty-five percent to be distributed among the village councils.

26. Distribution of revenue by town councils to parish and village councils

A town council shall distribute twenty-five percent of its total revenue as follows—

- (a) five percent to be distributed amongst parishes; and
- (b) twenty percent to be distributed amongst the village councils.

27. Distribution of grants to village, parish and ward councils

Twenty-five percent of the total of what a division retains and receives from the city or municipal council shall be distributed among the village councils within its area of jurisdiction, and ten percent among the parish or ward councils.

PART VII—MISCELLANEOUS28. Information to be supplied

(1) Every person paying any rate or tax or obtaining exemption from a rate or tax shall furnish the collector with information that may be required by the collector in preparing the requisite receipt or certificate of exemption, and shall, if so required by the collector, attend personally before the assessment committee that carried out the assessment.

(2) Any person who, on being required under this regulation to attend before the assessment committee, wilfully neglects or refuses to attend or, when attending, wilfully refuses to furnish any information lawfully required of him or her commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding half a currency point.

29. Penalties for false information

When required to give information, any person who wilfully gives false information to an assessment committee, assessment office, a tax assessment appeals tribunal, a Chief Administrative Officer or Town Clerk or a collector or who gives any information which he or she knows or has reason to believe is false commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding 0.5 currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month, or both.

30. Borrowing powers

(1) A local government council may, from time to time, raise loans by way of debenture, issue of bonds, or any other method, in amounts not exceeding twenty-five percent of the locally generated revenue, provided that the local government council demonstrates ability to meet its statutory requirements.

- (2) Borrowing shall be exercised by a local government council—
 - (a) with the approval of the Minister, if the amount to be borrowed exceeds ten percent of the total amount the local government council is eligible to borrow;
 - (b) after the Auditor General has certified the books of accounts of the preceding financial year;
 - (c) if the Auditor General's report is not qualified;
 - (d) if the funds are intended for investment in priority activities as identified by the whole council; and
 - (e) after the executive committee has given a guarantee to the effect that repayment of the loan shall not adversely affect the operations of the local government council and, in particular, meeting the statutory obligations, including salaries.
- (3) All loans approved by the Minister shall be published in the Gazette.

31. Temporary loans and overdraft

- (1) Whenever a district or urban council has lawfully incurred expenditure which has been provided for in its approved estimates, it may—
 - (a) pending revenue receipts; or
 - (b) pending the raising of a loan as provided under regulation 30 which has been duly approved by the council,obtain advances of money, not exceeding ten percent of the approved budget by way of temporary loan or overdraft and as part of the total amount to be borrowed, for the purposes of defraying that expenditure.

- (2) The money advanced under this regulation may be secured upon any property of the council obtaining the advance, other than office and residential buildings and the furniture in the office or residential buildings, rolling stock and engineering plants, to the extent that may be necessary to secure the repayment of the money advanced.

32. Investment of council funds

A local government council may invest money of the council in a manner that must be approved by a resolution of the council, upon proof that the investment is made in a secure and sound institution of high repute as may be confirmed by Bank of Uganda.
