THE MOVEMENT ACT

Commencement: 22 August, 1997

An Act to provide for the movement political system pursuant to Article 70 of the Constitution and for related matters.

PART I—INTERPRETATION

1. Interpretation

- (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—
- “Chairperson” means the Chairperson of the National Conference and of the National Executive Committee;
 - “Director” means a Director of the Secretariat appointed under section 12;
 - “district” includes a city;
 - “elder” means a person above the age of fifty years;
 - “leadership training centre” means a centre established for the purpose of promoting political education;
 - “lower movement organ” means a district movement conference or a movement organ below a district movement conference;
 - “movement” means the movement political system referred to in Article 70 of the Constitution;
 - “National Conference” means the National Conference of the movement established by section 3;
 - “National Executive Committee” means the National Executive Committee established by section 9;
 - “National Political Commissar” means the National Political Commissar appointed under section 12;
 - “parish” includes “ward”;
 - “Secretariat” means the Secretariat of the movement established by section 12;
 - “subcounty” includes a division in a city or municipality.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, references to district chairperson, district council, district executive committee, city council, division council, municipal council, subcounty or municipal division council, town council, parish council and village council shall be taken to be references to those authorities or bodies as they exist under the Local Governments Act.

PART II—THE MOVEMENT

2. The movement

The movement political system, referred to in Article 70 of the Constitution, shall, subject to the Constitution, operate in accordance with this Act.

PART III—ORGANS UNDER THE MOVEMENT

3. National Conference and other organs under the movement

(1) The movement shall have a National Conference which shall be the highest organ under the movement.

(2) The other organs under the movement are—

- (a) the National Executive Committee;
- (b) the Secretariat of the movement;
- (c) the district movement conference;
- (d) the division and municipal movement conferences;
- (e) the subcounty movement conference and town movement conference;
- (f) the parish movement conference; and
- (g) the village movement conferences.

(3) The National Conference shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue or be sued in its name in respect of the rights and obligations of all movement organs.

(4) The National Political Commissar shall be responsible for receiving all process of court and other legal documents on behalf of the National Conference.

4. Composition of National Conference

(1) The National Conference shall consist of the following persons—(a) the Chairperson;

- (b) the Vice Chairperson;
- (c) the National Political Commissar;
- (d) all members of Parliament;
- (e) all members of every district executive committee;
- (f) the chairperson of every district movement conference in each case where the person is not already a member by virtue of being a member of the district executive committee; the chairpersons of all division and municipal movement conferences;
- (h) the chairperson of every subcounty movement conference; the
- (i) chairperson of every town council movement conference; five
- (j) representatives of the National Organisation of Trade Unions, elected by the National Executive Committee of the National Organisation of Trade Unions;
- (k) all chairpersons of district youth councils under the National Youth Council Act;
- (l) all chairpersons of district women's councils under the National Women's Council Act;
- (m) all chairpersons of district or city councils for disability under the Persons with Disabilities Act;
- (n) five representatives of the National Union of Disabled Persons of Uganda, elected by the National Executive Committee of that union;
- (o) ten representatives of the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces, elected by the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces Council;
- (p) five representatives of the Uganda Police Force, elected by the Police Council;
- (q) three representatives of the Uganda Prisons Service;
- (r) all resident district commissioners, who shall be ex officio members;
- (s) ten representatives of the private business sector elected under the auspices of the Uganda National Chamber of Commerce and Industry; and
- (t) five representatives of the Veterans Association.

(2) Where the person elected President of the Republic of Uganda is not the person elected Chairperson, he or she shall be a member of the National Conference.

(3) There shall be a Chairperson of the National Conference who shall be a person nominated by at least two hundred members of the National Conference from at least two-thirds of all the districts of Uganda and elected by the National Conference.

(4) There shall be a Vice Chairperson of the National Conference who shall be a person nominated by at least two hundred members of the National Conference from at least two-thirds of all the districts of Uganda and elected by the National Conference.

(5) The Electoral Commission shall appoint a returning officer for the purposes of conducting any elections under this section.

(6) The Chairperson or Vice Chairperson may be removed from office by resolution supported by a majority of all members of the National Conference on grounds of—

- (a) inability to perform the functions of his or her office arising out of physical or mental incapacity;
- (b) misbehaviour or misconduct;
- (c) incompetence; or
- (d) failure to convene meetings of the National Conference or the National Executive Committee as required by law.

(7) The Chairperson and the Vice Chairperson are each entitled to appear at any proceedings for his or her removal and to be represented by a lawyer or other expert or person of his or her choice.

5. Role of National Conference

The National Conference shall—

- (a) initiate, formulate and evolve national consensus on key political, economic and social policies in Uganda;
- (b) mobilise the people to ensure optimal participation in political, economic and social policies in the country;
- (c) advise on and review implementation of key national policies;
- (d) advise Parliament and the Executive on the policy of the movement, making such recommendations as it may think fit;
- (e) promote national unity and solidarity; and

- (f) review the implementation of Government programmes and make appropriate recommendations on them to the Executive and Parliament.

6. Role of Chairperson

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Chairperson shall—
 - (a) be head of the movement and Chairperson of the National Conference and of the National Executive Committee;
 - (b) convene and preside over meetings of the National Conference and the National Executive Committee;
 - (c) ensure that the policies and principles of the movement are implemented;
 - (d) be the chief spokesperson of the movement;
 - (e) give guidance to the organs of the movement; and
 - (f) do any other thing necessary for the good of the movement and for the proper implementation of movement principles and policies in consultation with the National Executive Committee.

(2) The Vice Chairperson shall assist the Chairperson in carrying out his or her functions under this section.

7. Meetings of National Conference

(1) The National Conference shall ordinarily meet once in every two years.

(2) The National Conference may also have extraordinary meetings as and when necessary.

(3) All meetings of the National Conference shall be convened by the Chairperson by giving not less than thirty days' notice in the national media.

(4) In the absence of the Chairperson, meetings may be called by the Vice Chairperson in the manner prescribed by subsection (3).

(5) The Chairperson of the Electoral Commission or a commissioner designated by the Chairperson shall preside at any meeting for the election of a Chairperson of the National Conference.

(6) The Chairperson shall preside at an election of the Vice Chairperson.

(7) The election of the Chairperson shall be the first business of the National Conference at any time when the office of the Chairperson is vacant.

(8) An election to the office of the Vice Chairperson shall be held at the first meeting of the National Conference after that office becomes vacant.

(9) Subject to this section, all meetings of the National Conference shall be presided over by the Chairperson or in his or her absence, by the Vice Chairperson; and in the absence of both of them, the meeting shall be presided over by a member of the National Conference elected by the members present.

(10) All decisions at a meeting of the National Conference shall be taken by consensus, and in the absence of a consensus, by the votes of a majority of members present and voting; except that in the case of an election, the vote shall be by secret ballot.

(11) The National Conference shall otherwise prescribe its own procedure for its meetings.

8. Meetings by requisition

(1) At least one-quarter of the members of the National Conference may, in writing, signed by each of them, request the Chairperson or the Vice Chairperson to convene an extraordinary meeting of the National Conference, specifying the agenda to be considered at that meeting.

(2) If—

(a) the Chairperson or the Vice Chairperson refuses or otherwise fails within a reasonable time to respond to the request made under subsection (1); or

(b) after receipt of the response of the Chairperson or Vice Chairperson to the request, at least one-quarter of the members of the National Conference are dissatisfied with the response, then at least one-quarter of the members of the National Conference may, by written notice signed by them, call a special meeting, in this section referred to as a “requisition meeting”; and the notice shall be published in the national media appointing a date not less than thirty days from the date of publication of the notice for the meeting and stating the place and agenda of the meeting.

(3) A meeting by requisition shall be presided over by the Chairperson or in his or her absence by the Vice Chairperson; but in the absence of both of them or if they refuse or are unwilling to preside and quorum has been realised, the members present shall elect one of their number other than the National Political Commissar to preside at the meeting.

(4) The National Political Commissar shall act as returning officer at an election under subsection (3).

(5) All decisions taken and resolutions passed at a meeting by requisition of the National Conference shall have the same effect as decisions and resolutions taken or passed at an ordinary meeting of the National Conference.

(6) All expenses incurred by members in organising a meeting by requisition shall be borne by the movement.

PART IV—COMMITTEES OF NATIONAL CONFERENCE

9. National Executive Committee

(1) There shall be a National Executive Committee of the National Conference.

(2) The National Executive Committee shall be a standing committee of the National Conference.

(3) The National Executive Committee shall consist of---

- (a) the Chairperson;
- (b) the Vice Chairperson;
- (c) the National Political Commissar;
- (d) the district chairperson of every district;
- (e) the Chairperson of the district movement conference;

- (g) one-third of the district women representatives in Parliament elected by those representatives taking into account regional balance;
- (h) five representatives of women from among the chairpersons of the district women's council in the National Conference;
- (i) two representatives of the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces elected by the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces Council from among representatives of the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces who are representatives of the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces in the National Conference;
- (j) one representative of the Uganda Police Force from among the representatives of the Force in the National Conference;
- (k) one representative of the Uganda Prisons Service from among the representatives of the Service in the National Conference;
- (l) one representative of the private business sector elected from among the representatives of the private business sector elected under the auspices of the Uganda National Chamber of Commerce and Industry in the National Conference;
- (m) one representative of the Veterans Association from among the representatives of the association in the National Conference;
- (n) five representatives of the youth from among the chairpersons of district youth conference in the National Conference;
- (o) five representatives of persons with disabilities from among the chairpersons of district or city councils for disability in the National Conference; and
- (p) one representative of the workers from among their representatives in the National Conference.

(4) Where the person elected President of the Republic of Uganda is not the person elected Chairperson, he or she shall be a member of National Executive Committee.

10. Functions of National Executive Committee

- (1) The National Executive Committee shall—
 - (a) initiate policy and other measures considered by the National Conference;
 - (b) deal with policy matters on behalf of the National Conference;
 - (c) be responsible for the day-to-day affairs of the National Conference;

- (d) advise the National Conference on the performance of its functions; and
- (e) perform such other functions as the National Conference may direct.

(2) The National Political Commissar shall be the secretary to the National Executive Committee.

11. Meetings of National Executive Committee

(1) The National Executive Committee shall meet for the dispatch of business at least once in every six months.

(2) The meetings of the Committee shall be convened by the Chairperson or in his or her absence by the Vice Chairperson.

(3) Except for the first meeting or in case of an emergency, a notice of not less than fourteen days shall be given for every meeting of the Committee and the notice shall state the matters to be discussed at the meeting.

(4) The decisions of the Committee shall be taken by consensus, and in the absence of a consensus, by a majority of the members present and voting.

(5) No member of the Committee shall have a second or casting vote.

(6) The Committee may otherwise prescribe its own procedure for its meetings.

PART V—SECRETARIAT OF THE MOVEMENT

12. Secretariat

(1) The movement shall have a Secretariat headed by the National Political Commissar.

(2) The Chairperson shall submit to the National Executive Committee a list of not more than three names of persons nominated by the Chairperson to be candidates for the office of National Political Commissar.

(3) The members of the National Executive Committee shall elect a National Political Commissar from the nominees submitted by the Chairperson.

(4) The National Political Commissar shall be the secretary to the National Conference.

(5) As secretary, the National Political Commissar shall be responsible for recording the minutes of all proceedings of the National Conference and shall perform such other functions as the National Conference may direct.

(6) The National Political Commissar may be removed from office by the Chairperson on any of the following grounds—

- (a) abuse of office;
- (b) misconduct or misbehaviour;
- (c) physical or mental incapacity, namely that he or she is incapable of performing the functions of his or her office by reason of physical or mental incapacity;
- (d) mismanagement; or
- (e) incompetence.

(7) Where the question of the removal of the National Political Commissar from office under subsection (6)(c) arises, the Chairperson shall request the professional head of medical services of Uganda to constitute a medical board comprising five qualified and eminent medical specialists to examine the National Political Commissar and to report its finding on his or her state of health to the Chairperson.

(8) The Chairperson shall cause the National Political Commissar to be informed within twenty-four hours of the constitution of the medical board; and the National Political Commissar shall submit himself or herself to the medical board for examination within seven days.

(9) If the medical board determines that the National Political Commissar is by reason of physical or mental incapacity unable to perform the functions of that office, the Chairperson shall take steps to remove him or her from office.

(10) If the medical board, after the expiration of the period of seven days referred to in subsection (8) reports that the National Political Commissar has failed or refused to submit himself or herself to the medical board in accordance with that subsection, the Chairperson shall take steps to remove him or her from office.

(11) There shall be such number of directors and deputy directors in charge of such directorates and leadership training centres as the National Executive Committee may establish within the Secretariat.

(12) The directors and deputy directors shall be appointed by the Chairperson with the approval of the National Executive Committee.

(13) There shall be such number of staff at the Secretariat as the National Executive Committee shall determine.

(14) The staff referred to in subsection (13) shall be appointed by the National Political Commissar on the recommendation of the committee responsible for human resources appointed under section 33.

(15) Public officers may be seconded to the Secretariat for enabling the Secretariat to carry out its functions.

13. Censure of National Political Commissar

(1) The National Executive Committee may, by resolution supported by more than half of all members of the Committee, pass a vote of censure against the National Political Commissar on any of the following grounds--

- (a) abuse of office;
- (b) misconduct or misbehaviour;
- (c) physical or mental incapacity, namely that he or she is incapable of performing the functions of his or her office by reason of physical or mental incapacity;
- (d) mismanagement; or
- (e) incompetence.

(2) Upon a vote of censure being passed against the National Political Commissar, the Chairperson shall, unless the National Political Commissar resigns his or her office, take appropriate action in the matter which may include any of the following--

- (a) reprimand;
- (b) suspension; or

(c) dismissal.

(3) Proceedings for censure of the National Political Commissar shall be initiated by a petition to the Chairperson signed by not less than one-third of all members of the National Executive Committee giving notice that they are dissatisfied with the conduct or performance of the National Political Commissar and intend to move a motion for a resolution of censure and setting out particulars of the grounds in support of the motion.

(4) The Chairperson shall, upon receipt of the petition, cause a copy of it to be given to the National Political Commissar.

(5) The motion for the resolution of censure shall not be debated until the expiry of thirty days after the petition was sent to the Chairperson.

(6) The National Political Commissar is entitled during the debate to be heard in his or her defence.

(7) This section shall apply to a director and a deputy director as it applies to the National Political Commissar.

14. Role of Secretariat

Under the direction of the National Political Commissar, the Secretariat shall—

- (a) be responsible for giving effect to the decisions of the National Conference and the National Executive Committee;
- (b) be responsible for national mobilisation of the people and for facilitating the discharge of the functions of the National Conference and the National Executive Committee;
